		Graduate Student Cor	nference
	Tran	sdisciplinary Approaches to	Linguistic Diversity
April 12-13, 2024
		Friday, April 12	2
UC Bluff Room Deb Talbot Roundtable Opening Reception
UC Bluff Room Deb Talbot Roundtable: Reclaiming Indigenous Languages (Kendall King & Joshua Hinson)				& Joshua Hinson)
		Saturday, April :	13
Patterson Hall Lobby		Registration
Patterson Hall 4 th Floor E		Breakfast
		Breakout	sessions
321		323	329	331
Alaa Alamri Family language policy of transnational returnees: The case of Arab families re-adapting to mainstream Arab society		Ming Cheng Screencast corrective feedback in L2 English academic writing	Ifeoluwa Awopetu Language and identity: Examining the use of dialects in African Literature	Egeman Curuk Formality and political alignment: A sentiment Analysis of Turkish Newspapers
5 Saad Alamri Exploring the role of religious beliefs and practices on Family Language Policy: The case of non- Arab families in Saudi Arabia		Allen R. Woodall, III ChatGPT-assisted teaching and learning on interrogative subject- verb inversion in Spanish second language acquisition	Scott Dutt A research community in crisis: How to resolve discrepancies between theory and reality
Hussain Alzubaidi Translanguaging as a sociolinguistic phenomenon in Muslim communities: Investigating the purposes behind the interplay between Arabic and other languages		Abdulwahab Alsheri Investigating ESL Saudi learners' performance in the light of the attribution theory	Jubair Uddin Attitudes towards Language and Social Identity: An Examination of Multilingualism and the Role of English in the Port City of Bangladesh
5 Iratishe Madaki Creating translanguaging spaces for linguistic inclusion: A conversational analysis of moments		Abdulmajeed Almatard Developing an evaluation checklist for identity in ESOL textbooks	Heri Yusup The use of metaphors in Indonesian scholars' talk about migration and mobility
Break – Poster Session	Break – Poster Session, PT 448 Hallway
Keynote speaker: Sanita Martena, Visiting Fulbright Scholar, PT 456  "Multilingualism in Latvia: Language practices and ideologies in families and beyond"  Lunch will be an your own - there are many new restaurants on Highland!
	Patterson Hall Lobby Patterson Hall 4 th Floo  321  Alaa Alamri Family language policy of transnational returnees: The Arab families re-adapting to mainstream Arab society  Saad Alamri Exploring the role of religion beliefs and practices on Fall Language Policy: The case Arab families in Saudi Arab Hussain Alzubaidi Translanguaging as a socion phenomenon in Muslim communities: Investigating purposes behind the interplet between Arabic and other languages  Iratishe Madaki Creating translanguaging solinguistic inclusion: A conversal analysis of moments  Break — Poster Session Keynote speaker: Sanir "Multilingualism in Lagranges"	UC Bluff Room Deb Tal UC Bluff Room Deb Tal UC Bluff Room Deb Tal Patterson Hall Lobby Patterson Hall 4 th Floor  321 Alaa Alamri Family language policy of transnational returnees: The case of Arab families re-adapting to mainstream Arab society  Saad Alamri Exploring the role of religious beliefs and practices on Family Language Policy: The case of non-Arab families in Saudi Arabia Hussain Alzubaidi Translanguaging as a sociolinguistic phenomenon in Muslim communities: Investigating the purposes behind the interplay between Arabic and other languages Iratishe Madaki Creating translanguaging spaces for linguistic inclusion: A conversational analysis of moments  Break — Poster Session, PT 448 Keynote speaker: Sanita Marte "Multilingualism in Latvia: La	Transdisciplinary Approaches to April 12-13, 202  Friday, April 12  UC Bluff Room Deb Talbot Roundtable Opening Receptic UC Bluff Room Deb Talbot Roundtable: Reclaiming Indig Saturday, April 2  Patterson Hall Lobby Registration Breakfast  Patterson Hall 4 th Floor Breakfast  Breakout 321 323  Alaa Alamri Family language policy of transnational returnees: The case of Arab families re-adapting to mainstream Arab society  Saad Alamri Exploring the role of religious beliefs and practices on Family Language Policy: The case of non-Arab families in Saudi Arabia Hussain Alzubaidi Translanguaging as a sociolinguistic phenomenon in Muslim communities: Investigating the purposes behind the interplay between Arabic and other languages  Iratishe Madaki Creating translanguaging spaces for linguistic inclusion: A conversational analysis of moments  Transdisciplinary Appril 12  Registration  Ming Cheng Screencast corrective feedback in L2 English academic writing  Allen R. Woodall, III  ChatGPT-assisted teaching and learning on interrogative subject-verb inversion in Spanish second language acquisition  Abdulmahab Alsheri Investigating ESL Saudi learners' performance in the light of the attribution theory  Abdulmajeed Almatard Developing an evaluation checklist for identity in ESOL textbooks  Break — Poster Session, PT 448 Hallway  Keynote speaker: Sanita Martena, Visiting Fulbright Scholar, PT 4	Transdisciplinary Approaches to Linguistic Diversity April 12-13, 2024  Friday, April 12  UC Bluff Room Deb Talbot Roundtable Opening Reception  UC Bluff Room Deb Talbot Roundtable: Reclaiming Indigenous Languages (Kendall King & Saturday, April 13  Patterson Hall Lobby Registration Patterson Hall 4th Floor Breakfast  Breakout sessions  321 323 329  Alaa Alamri Family language policy of transnational returnees: The case of Arab families re-adapting to mainstream Arab society  Saad Alamri Exploring the role of religious beliefs and practices on Family Language Policy: The case of non-Arab families in Saudi Arabia  Hussain Alzubaidi Translanguaging as a sociolinguistic phenomenon in Muslim communities: Investigating the purposes behind the interplay between Arabic and other languages  Ilratishe Madaki Creating translanguaging spaces for linguistic inclusion: A conversational analysis of moments  Transdisciplinary Appril 12  LOBURT Room Deb Talbot Roundtable Opening Reception  Break Poster Session, PT 448 Hallway  Keynote speaker: Sanita Martena, Visiting Fulbright Scholar, PT 456  "Multitlingualism in Latvia: Language practices and ideologies in families and beyond"