

Christy Cornell
Vice President, Investments
Raymond James & Associates, Inc.

Christy Cornell is a Vice President, Investments, serving as a financial advisor for Raymond James & Associates, Inc.

Christy is a lifetime community volunteer, and is actively involved in several organizations. She currently serves on the boards of the following organizations: Sustainer Board for the Junior League of Memphis, Christ Community Health Services, and Exceptional Foundation of West Tennessee. She is active in her church, the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, as a Eucharistic Minister, Lector, and is a member of the Pastoral Council, Finance Council, and Worship Team. She is currently working with her collegiate sorority Delta Gamma as an additional alumni advisor for Foundations. She also serves on the Community Advisory Board for Hope House.

Some of her previous board positions include Treasurer for Habitat for Humanity of Greater Memphis; President and Treasurer of the Women of the Cathedral; Junior League of Memphis Active Board; Humane Society of Memphis & Shelby County; and Hope House Daycare Center.

Christy's previous volunteer experience includes working with her dog as an Animal Assisted Partner Team with MidSouth Pet Therapy Animals visiting LeBonheur, Christian Brothers University, Children's Museum of Memphis, Paige Robbins Adult Daycare and other various special events. She also volunteers with Raymond James Cares for Habitat for Humanity and the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure.

Christy graduated with BBA in Finance in December 1991 and with the Executive MBA in May 2000 both from the University of Memphis. Christy is married to Steve Knott, has three children, and lives in Central Gardens in Midtown. She enjoys hiking and pet therapy training with her current Great Pyrenees Samson, reading, baking, and entertaining.