

Juloy Raymer
Director, Physician Revenue Life Cycle
Ensemble Health Partners

Juloy Raymer has been in the healthcare field for over twenty-five years both in the hospital and professional practice setting. Moving from physician practice operations, she joined Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare as finance manager moving to revenue services director innovatively working to design processes and technology to secure all reimbursement due the healthcare system from government and managed care payers. After seven years in finance, Juloy made the switch to hospital operations as administrator of the outpatient clinical services division of Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare running all outpatient clinics for the healthcare system. From Methodist, Juloy moved into the vice president of revenue services role for UT Medical Group (a five hundred provider multi-specialty practice) affiliated with the University of Tennessee medical school. From there Juloy joined Willow Enterprises as managing partner and CEO. Willow Enterprises is a full service anesthesia provider practice servicing multiple facilities in Mississippi and Arkansas. Currently Juloy serves as the director of physician revenue cycle for Ensemble Health Partners where she travels all over the United States assisting hospitals and physician groups streamline and integrate their revenue cycle practices to maximum reimbursement, minimize compliance risk and move physician practices to maximum profitability.

Juloy has a BBA in finance from the University of Memphis graduating summa cum laude as well as graduating from the executive MBA program at the University of Memphis.

Personally, Juloy has been married for 21 years to her high school sweetheart. Phillip, whom she met at Graceland when they were both working there as teenagers. They have four wonderful children, Eowyn, Will, Heike, and Eva. In her spare time, she enjoys traveling, attending the symphony, going to the theater and ballet, watching the German soccer team Bayern Munich, playing the piano, cooking, canning, scrapbooking and reading. Currently Juloy is learning German to keep up with her kids. Phillip and Juloy love teaching and traveling with their children. She has previously served as the president of the FCBE alumni association for the Fogelman College of Business and as the chairperson for several years for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society's Light the Night event. She currently is also a member of Le Bonheur Club. Juloy looks forward to one day spending time in the castles and beer halls of Germany, summers in Bath and Salzburg, and living in New Zealand.
