

Faculty Senate

Motion to Suspend Senate Standing Rule Article III, Section 8

Originator: Senator Jeffrey Marchetta

Whereas, the Articles of Authority, Article III, Section 5 states, “Administrative proposals for any change to the Faculty Handbook, other than grammatical, format, or spelling changes, must be submitted for approval to the Faculty Senate prior to the first senate meeting of the spring term preceding the academic year in which the proposed change would take effect.”

Whereas, the Articles of Authority, Article III Section 8 states, “A Senate standing rule may be suspended for any specific main motion by a simple majority vote of the Senate.”

Be it resolved,

The Faculty Senate approves suspension to the Article III, Section 8 of the Articles of Authority specifically for the “Motion to Approve Revisions for the 2023-2024 Faculty Handbook.”
