09.04.07.04  PRESIDENT’S REPORT
1. Decentralization of Faculty Service Awards—President E. Stevens stated that the Faculty Service awards will be held in each college and or area. Faculty participation through e-mail was a major factor in the decision to decentralize.
2. Work Team on Effort Certification—Failure to follow Effort Certification rules may result in heavy fines. An interim University policy on effort certification has been approved. Only those faculty with federal funding will certify effort. President E. Stevens stated that the University of Memphis is a BETA test site. The final policy on Effort Certification will go into effect when the module to Banner goes on-line about a year from now.
3. Enrollment Management Council—President E. Stevens attended the Enrollment Management Council Workshop held August 21, 2007. The workshop centered on ways to achieve the University’s goals for student enrollment and student quality. The University is putting real dollars in the University’s Honors and Emerging Leaders programs. Fall 2007 enrollment figures show 400+ freshmen in the University Honors Program. There was discussion about asking faculty to take an active role in helping to retain students. Research shows that intervention should take place during the first three weeks of the semester. For example, Mississippi State had a marked increase in student retention with early intervention. The U of M Provost’s Office will probably fund two (2) counselor positions to help with early intervention. In addition, Dual Enrollment at the U of M of seniors from local high schools was discussed. Transfer and Returning Adult students were viewed as populations where significant increases in student enrollment might occur.
4. Academic Enrichment Funds—The annual Marcus Orr Faculty Senate (MOFS) Lecture has received $4,000.00 in funding. Additional funding sources should be explored by the MOFS committee.
5. Other Concerns – Photo Session. Senator T. Martindale requested that at the end of the meeting each senator would participate in a brief photo session so that he could put a name with each face.
6. President E. Stevens acknowledged the presence of all guests. Doug Hurley (VP Information Systems/CIO, asked whether he could briefly address the Senate regarding what Information Technology was doing at present. The Senate as a whole agreed.

09.04.07.05  OPEN FORUM ON INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
D. Hurley, Vice President Information Technology/Chief Information Officer, asked whether the Senators had any issues related to his area that they would like to discuss. The main topic for discussed was Desire2Learn (D2L), known issues, workarounds, and solutions. No single signon is available at this time. The system has experienced a number of changes because of inherent technical problems and also the overall learning curve associated with a new system.

Banner/D2L interface has been a problem. Data must be correct in Banner to be processed in D2L. The worst of the problem is behind us at U of M. Batching happens once in the 24-hour timeframe. But faculty members are requesting real-time update. Current IT focus on the system is twofold: Is the system operational, and is the system stable? The time frame for the system to generate a combined list of students is unknown.

T. Nenon gave feedback on things faculty want to see, such as, downloadable text or Excel documents; currently one can download the web screen. T. Nenon stated that e-print can download the roster at the administrative level as a quick fix, but he understands that the fix is inadequate. Faculty feedback is a high priority for the administration. T. Nenon noted that the ad hoc IT committee can provide him a list of problematic issues regarding the system. One of several questions posed was: Who is the vendor for Banner? Banner’s vendor is SUNGuard, an SCT company.
