The University of Memphis Evaluations by Faculty

Loewenberg College of Nursing

April 2020

Introduction

Three parallel instruments consisting of 26 items each were developed, modified and approved by the Faculty Senate. Additional demographic items included faculty rank (full professor, associate professor, assistant professor, clinical professor, or adjunct professor); faculty status (tenured, tenure-track, or non-tenure-track); time at the University of Memphis, and gender. Space was provided for additional comments. The items, along with the constructs they comprise, appear in the appendix of this document.

The surveys were administered online by the Center for Research in Educational Policy (CREP) using the Qualtrics XM survey platform. Data are securely stored and accessible only through CREP.

Participants

According to the Office of Institutional Research, the faculty database consists of 974 full-time and 490 part-time faculty and an overall faculty population of 1,464. The number of survey participants are reported below by faculty evaluation survey and then by college. Deans of individual colleges/schools can estimate their response rates based on the number of current faculty in their units.

Reporting

Reports generated by CREP for the President, Provost, and Deans contain the following elements:

- Item responses, presented as the percent of responses to each item on a Likert scale (strongly agree, agree, disagree, strongly disagree, and no evidence on which to base an opinion)
- Percent of responses to choices for the following demographic categories: position, faculty status, length of time at the University of Memphis, gender)
- Comments (unedited)
- A summary of the constructs/dimensions showing means for each in table and graphic formats
- A table and graph for each of the seven constructs/dimensions showing the percent of faculty agreeing/strongly agreeing with each item in the construct

Reports for the President and Provost have been disaggregated by each of the demographic items, using the same format as above.
