

LANGUAGE FAIR 2019

The University of Memphis Language Fair is an opportunity for your students earning high school credit in a world language to CREATE, PERFORM, and KNOW about the target language and culture they are currently studying. From academic to artistic production, the Language Fair offers activities for students studying Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Japanese, Latin, Russian, and Spanish – no matter the course level nor their linguistic proficiency:

CREATE

Art
Crafts
Greeting Cards
Poetry Writing—Foreign Language*
Poetry Writing—Heritage/Native Speakers*
Posters
Video*
Writing—Foreign Language*
Writing—Heritage/Native Speakers*

PERFORM

Costumes
Dance—Hispanic
Dance—World
Music—Group
Music—Solo
Poetry Recitation

KNOW

Culture Bowl
Greek & Roman History & Mythology Quiz
Research Project
Vocabulary Quizzes

EXPLORE – Attend performances in other languages or take a mini lesson in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Russian, and Spanish to truly explore a world of languages.

EXPERIENCE – Spend a day on the UofM campus – the largest university in West Tennessee: Take a campus tour, meet our world language faculty, and learn about some of the student and cultural organizations on campus.

CONNECT – With approximately 50 secondary schools from across the MidSouth represented, the Language Fair is an excellent opportunity to network with other world language educators. All registered teachers are welcome to enjoy our Teacher Hospitality Room throughout the day of the Language Fair.

Teachers, register your students by February 28!

www.memphis.edu/fair

- (*) All writing and video submissions must be submitted at the time of registration.
- Criteria and judging rubrics are available on the Language Fair website.
- There is an $8 non-refundable registration fee per student.

Create. Perform. Know.

Saturday, March 30, 2019 • University of Memphis

www.memphis.edu/fair