

POETRY WRITING – FOREIGN LANGUAGE

University of Memphis Language Fair 2024

i GUIDELINES

- Students will submit an original work of poetry in the target language prior to the day of the Fair to be judged.
- Format: Submissions must not exceed the following lengths (double-spaced, Times New Roman, 12 pt. font., 1" margins):
 - Level I and II – no more than half of page.
 - Level III-IV – no more than one page.
 - For language-specific requirements, please see memphis.edu/fair/.
- All work must be done solely by the student.
- The use of dictionaries is permitted, though online translation is not.
- Submissions will be accepted starting February 1st and will close on March 1st. All work is to be submitted via the online registration form at www.memphis.edu/fair/.
- All submissions must be submitted together in one PDF or Word file per level at the time of registration.
- The files should be named in this manner: a submission from French 3 at School X would be named "SchoolXFrenchPoetryWritingLevel3.pdf" or "SchoolXFrenchPoetryWritingLevel3.docx".
- Each student submission must include the following information:
 - Student Name
 - School
 - Teacher
 - Language
 - Level (I, II, III, IV)
- Poems that have won prizes in previous years may not be re-submitted.
- Only second language learners may participate in this event. Native/heritage speakers of the target language and native/heritage speakers of any cognate languages may NOT participate. However, they may qualify to participate in the Native/Heritage Speaker Poetry Writing event.
 - Native Speaker – the majority of formal education is in the target language
 - Heritage Speaker/Learner – the majority of formal education is in English, but the target language is commonly used for communication in the home
 - Second Language Learner – little or no experience with the target language outside of formal education
 - Cognate languages are ones that closely related to the language being tested, such as Portuguese speakers in Spanish contests. Speakers of cognate languages are excluded from the vocabulary quiz in the name of fairness and may not participate in this event.
