FCBE students, have you dreamed of exploring other countries, bolstering you academic prowess and immersing yourself in different cultures?

Apply for the Morgan Morton Study Abroad Fund!

Through the generous support of Morgan Morton, a FCBE alumnus and major college benefactor, select students will have an opportunity to receive up to $1,500 in reimbursable travel expenses. The travel fund is intended to enhance student learning about businesses (both for-profit and not-for-profit) and to further their professional development. This fund is reserved for FCBE students who have already been accepted into the study abroad program.

Priority of funds will be given for international travel and to junior or senior undergraduate students.

Award: Successful applicants will be awarded between $500 to $1,500 per student.

HOW TO APPLY:

1. Complete the application at: memphis.edu/fcbeusso/pdfs/forms/mm_travel_fund_application.pdf
2. Write a one-page description of the trip including a list of the courses you’ll be taking, expected learning outcomes, how this trip will make you more knowledgeable in global business and how you plan to use the knowledge and skills gained abroad to enhance your personal and professional goals.
3. Submit your current resume.
4. Provide a letter of recommendation from an FCBE faculty or staff member.

DEADLINES

- If you are planning to study abroad during winter break or the spring semester, applications must be submitted by Oct. 15, 2022.
- If you are planning to study abroad during the fall semester, summer semester or academic year, applications must be submitted by March 15, 2023.
