

GEORGE JOHNSON STAFF AWARDS PROGRAM
Fogelman College of Business & Economics
April 2023

The Fund shall be used to support staff members in the Fogelman College of Business & Economics. Selection will be based on: (1) excellence in service and professionalism, OR (2) educational and developmental needs of staff members. Nominations for the awards can be made by Department Chairs, faculty, and staff members. With input from an advisory committee, the Dean of the Fogelman College and Mr. George Johnson will select the recipient(s) of the awards.

(1) The staff awards for excellence in service and professionalism shall carry a monetary award for $5,000. Two such awards may be made per year. Recipients of the “George Johnson Staff Award” are eligible for reselection each year.

(2) The staff awards for educational and developmental purposes will provide funds based on needs, with the amounts determined by the Dean of the Fogelman College. Funds can be provided for travel, conference attendance, training programs, and other expenditures that support professionalism.
