Fogelman College of Business and Economics
Honors Thesis

Students who complete 18 hours (at least 12 hours must be at the upper division level) of business honors courses with an acceptable Senior Honors Experience and a minimum 3.25 grade point average in all courses taken in The Fogelman College of Business and Economics, and in all Honors courses taken in this college, with a minimum overall grade point average of 3.00 will have earned the designation of "With Honors in Business" which will appear on the transcript and diploma.

To complete the Senior Honors Experience, a student may choose to write an honors thesis or complete two activities from the experience options.

The Honors Thesis is an original analysis or criticism which involves extensive research and which exhibits greater depth than a typical undergraduate paper. The research is conducted in the student's major field of study.

The student must select a faculty member in the area of his/her major. This faculty member will be the thesis supervisor and must approve the topic of the thesis. The thesis will be submitted to the thesis supervisor a week before the end of the semester. The thesis must be a minimum of twenty-five pages and must follow MLA or APA style. Thorough documentation is expected, and the student is responsible for understanding and avoiding plagiarism.

After the topic has been approved, the student must complete the Request for Honors Thesis form and obtain signatures from the thesis supervisor, department chair, and the director of the college honors program. Then the student must submit the form to the honors advisor for processing.

The student may use the thesis as an elective in the major. The course number is 4996, and the student will receive 3 hours credit for completing the thesis.
