

Janann M. Sherman Undergraduate Award for the Study of Women's History
2016 Application Form
University of Memphis

The Janann M. Sherman Undergraduate Award for the Study of Women's History assists with the educational expenses of an exceptional undergraduate student with a demonstrated interest, through coursework and/or research, in the history of women, gender, and/or the family. Recipient must be full-time student who has completed at least 45 hours of coursework with a minimum GPA of 3.0. Recipient does not need to be a history major, but must demonstrate interest in and academic experience working on topics relating to the history of women, gender, and/or the family.

1 awarded every year

$500

Application required

Name:

U#:

Local address:

Local telephone # or cell:

Email address:

Number of earned credit hours:

Major (include secondary major, if applicable):

Minor (if applicable):

History GPA:

Overall GPA:

Faculty Recommender:

Attach the following to this application:

1. Typed resume that includes your work and academic experience, as well as any academic scholarships, prizes, or awards you have received.
2. Unofficial transcript
3. Typed statement of no more than 750 words describing a) how the study of history relates to your personal and professional goals and b) how you are uniquely qualified for this award.
4. Letter of recommendation from a member of the University of Memphis history department, to be submitted directly to Karen Jackett (mkmiller@memphis.edu, 219B3 Mitchell Hall) by the faculty member. Please request your letter of recommendation as far in advance of the deadline as possible.

All winners will be decided by a committee of history department faculty members.

HAND IN APPLICATION MATERIALS TO KAREN JACKETT, 219B3 MITCHELL HALL.

APPLICATIONS DUE FEBRUARY 1, 2016, BY 4:00 PM.

Please contact Dr. Dennis Laumann, Director of Undergraduate Studies, if you have any questions:

dlaumann@memphis.edu