

HIST 4012/4014

Honors Directed Readings in History/Directed Readings in History
INDEPENDENT STUDY LEARNING CONTRACT

COURSE INFORMATION:

Under the direction of faculty member, a student reads on a particular topic of historical interest and attends one-on-one meetings to discuss the readings. Students should have taken at least one course with the instructor before requesting a directed readings course. Both the instructor and the student must read and agree to the terms of the contract below.

Instructors will provide a syllabus or written confirmation at the start of the term that outlines meeting schedule, readings, assignments, paper requirements, due dates, and course policies and assessments incorporating the following:

- Meetings for one-on-one discussion: at least 5 times (7 for Honors) but no more than 15 times over the course of the term.
- Reading list: at least 5 books or equivalent (7 for Honors) but no more than 15 books over the course of the term.
- Assignments: at least 2 short writing assignments or equivalent (3 for Honors) but no more than 5 writing assignments or equivalent over the course of the term. Please note, research papers cannot be assigned for Directed Readings or Honors Directed Readings.

Students will:

- Devote 3 hours of work per week for every credit hour, e.g. 3 credits hours = 9 hours of work per week.
- Attend all scheduled meetings.
- Read all required books and articles.
- Complete all assigned papers.
