

History Study Abroad Programs

All programs below are taught in English unless otherwise stated!

Courses and Program details are subject to change. All students must apply for all programs through the Study Abroad Office and not through the linked websites.
(This is only a partial list. Talk to a Study Abroad Advisor to learn more.)

Semester Programs

Europe

Czech Republic: University of West Bohemia \(UofM Partner School\) – Studying at West Bohemia offers the opportunity to Study in the heart of Central Europe in the city of Pilsen. Course options include History of the Central Europe, Modern Totalitarianism and Central Europe, Regional Culture Studies, and European Powers in North Africa.

England: University of Kent \(UofM Exchange\) – England provides many course options, such as Britain and the Second World War, Victorian Britain, Military History, British History, Monarchy and Aristocracy in England 1460-1640, The British Army and Empire 1750-1920, Anglo-Saxon Culture: Word, Image and Power, 1600-1750: The Age of Enlightenment and courses in much more!

Finland: University of Helsinki \(UofM Exchange\) – Explore the history of Northern Europe! Take courses on Nordic History, Imperialism, Medieval History, and the Kome Renaissance, while exploring the Arctic nation of Finland.

Italy: Palazzi \(UofM Partner School\) – Studying in Florence offers students the opportunity to study history, art history, and other topics. Courses offered have included History of the Mafia, History of the Italian renaissance, and Love, Sex & Marriage in Renaissance Italy.

Poland: Jagiellonian University of Krakow \(API Study Abroad\) – In Poland, courses offered have included Poland and Europe in the 20th Century, The Holocaust and Its Cultural Meaning, and The Cold War. Courses are also available in Polish or Jewish art, cinema, and gay literature. An internship at the Galician Jewish Museum is a possibility.

Universidad Carlos III de Madrid \(UofM Exchange Program\) – Explore the history of Spain in Madrid! Courses include Contemporary History of Spain, History of Cinema, History of the World Economy, Political and Social History. This program also offers classes in International Studies, Political Science and Law.

Asia/Oceania

Australia: University of Western Australia \(ISEP Exchange\) - The University is located in the business center of the coastal city of Perth, Australia. Offering courses in variety of unique courses, including History in 4D, Looking for Australia: From the Deep Past to Federation, and Australia's Foreign Wars.

Malaysia: Sultan Idris Education University \(ISEP Exchange\) - Students studying in Kuala Lumpur can take variety of classes related to Southeast and East Asian history, including Southeast Asia 9th-18th Century, Islamic Developments in West Asia, and Malaysia: Malacca to the New Malay States.

Thailand: Mahidol University \(ISA/TEAN Study Abroad\) - At this school, all courses are taught in English, offering many course options in history and other topics. Past course offerings include Thai History, Globalization and the Modern World, Early History of Southeast Asia, and Global Change in the Late 20th Century.

Africa

Ghana: University of Ghana \(ISEP\) - Located near the capital city of Ghana, students will take courses such as Human Origins and Cultural Foundations in Africa, Early Civilizations of Africa, and Archeology and the African Cultural Heritage.

South Africa: University of the Western Cape \(ISA Study Abroad\) - This university has a storied history being founded by non-white students in 1959 during the Apartheid Era for colored students. Course options could include Gender and African History, Themes in Coastal African Histories, and Studies in Modern Imperialism.

Botswana: University of Botswana \(ISA Study Abroad\) - Study in the heart of Africa with opportunities for internships and volunteer experience. The university offer history courses in Crisis in Modern Central Africa, Settler Scramble for Southern Africa, Slave Trade & Colonial conquest, and Religion and Power in Botswana.

Central and Latin America

Chile: Universidad Adolfo Ibáñez \(ISA Study Abroad\) - Students must have completed 4 semesters of college Spanish for this program and must take at least one course taught in Spanish, but English electives are available. Course options include Human Rights in Chile: A Historical Perspective, Latin America in the Age of Globalization, and History of Chile.

Peru: ISA Cusco Study Center \(ISA Study Abroad\) - Live in the heart of Inca land near Machu Picchu and experience history. Courses offered in both Spanish and English, and include History of the Inca Civilization, People and Cultures of Peru, and Cultural Heritage, Archaeology & Tourism.

Summer History Programs

Lille, France: Museums or History in France \(UofM Program\) - Spend your summer in Lille, France! Students take a French language course at their level and one English-taught elective. History related courses include Tourism and World Class Museums between Paris and Brussels or in Flanders Fields: The Great War on the Western Front - History and Film. Change to Lille, France.

Cultural Studies in Granada, Spain \(CEA Study Abroad\) - Students will take both a Spanish language course (beginner through intermediate), and an English-taught elective, such as History of Spain or The Arab World and the West: past and Future.

Spanish Language and Liberal Arts in Costa Rica \(CEA Study Abroad\) - Study a through a variety of courses at Veritas University, while enjoying the tropical environment of Costa Rica. Students will take a language course and at least 1 elective. History courses include Contemporary Latin American History and Sustainability and Resource Management in the Ancient World.

History in Czech Republic \(CEA Study Abroad\) - Spend six weeks in Prague at Anglo-American University. Courses include Kafka in Prague: Connections and Insights, Jewish Prague and other electives in economics, politics, and culture.

Irish Studies \(CEA Study Abroad\) - Students study at the National University of Ireland in Galway, earning 6 credits. Courses of interest include Irish History and The Archaeological Heritage of Ireland.

History in Shanghai \(ISA Study Abroad\) Study in the bustling city of Shanghai and learn Chinese history and culture firsthand at Fudan University. Students can take History courses in China, the Third World, and the Cold War; and Culture Resources of Cities in China.

Latin American Studies in Buenos Aires \(CEA Study Abroad\) - Students study courses regarding Latin America through the Universidad de Belgrano in Argentine capitol of Buenos Aires. Students will be required to take a language course, alongside their additional studies, which may be in Spanish. Available history courses include Argentine Economic History and Historia Latinoamericana del siglo XX.

Don't see a program you're interested in?

Use the QR code to schedule an appointment with a Study Abroad Advisor today.