Instructions for Community Course Students

Information for applicants already in Memphis - NOT for F1 (student) visa applicants

The following materials must be brought to the IEI office when applying:

- Completed, signed Special Course Application Form
- Application fee ($25)

All fees must be paid by the application deadline.

Please be aware that classes will be cancelled the Friday before the class if there have not been enough students to register. You will be informed by phone if this happens.

The IEI Office

The IEI office is located on the second floor of the Panhellenic Building on the main UM campus in room 205. The Panhellenic Building is next to the FedEx Institute of Technology building at the intersection of Patterson Street and Veterans Avenue.

Parking

Students driving to the university should get a general parking tag from the University Parking Office. The cost is $14 for a semester (2 sessions). This tag allows students to park in the General Parking lots on Central Ave. and on Southern Ave. Ask for a letter from the IEI office if you need to purchase a parking tag.

Certificates

Students with regular participation (attending at least 75% of the classes) will receive a certificate at the end of the session.

Business English

6 Classes, June 10 – July 22

Saturdays, 9:30 – 11:30 am

$120

The Business English for Internationals course is a 12-hour course designed to give international students the opportunity to practice oral forms of business communication needed for socializing, communicating by telephone, making presentations and conducting meetings. Some time will also be spent working on various written forms of business communication.
