10:00 am	Tour Stax Museum	Welcome to Soulsville USA! You will get to see, hear and feel more than half a century of soul music. Stax Records is critical in American music history as it's one of the most popular soul music record labels of all time - second only to Motown in sales and influence. In 15 years, Stax placed more than 167 hit songs in the Top 100 on the pop charts, and a staggering 243 hits in the Top 100 R&B charts. Click here for a sneak peek...
11:45 am	Lunch at the Trolley Stop Market	Enjoy this funky fun eatery that provides locally based, handcrafted meals. Explore their menu. Read about the Trolley Stop Market (advance to pages 25 & 26). Food and beverage costs are not included in the registration fee.
1:30 pm	Sun Studio	Grab your ticket to enjoy the birthplace of Rock N' Roll ! You will get to hold the microphone Elvis held while recording his first tunes and see where the Million Dollar quartet jammed.
6:45 pm	Dinner in Graceland Automobile Museum	Take an unforgettable journey through the most famous rock 'n' roll residence in the world. Explore the personal life of Elvis Presley and learn how his revolutionary style and unique sound changed the face of popular music and culture forever. This legendary Rock N' Roll pilgrimage will show you why Elvis lives. CUTC participants and spouses are getting the royal treatment and will tour the mansion, the planes, the Elvis: Live from Vegas exhibit and the cars.

Wednesday, June 12, 2013 Discover Memphis Gems
Time	Activity	Description
7:00 am - 9:00 am	Breakfast	Enjoy a fantastic breakfast buffet at the University of Memphis Holiday Inn Restaurant
10:00 am	Private Tour of the Memphis Brooks Museum of Art	As one of the largest and most innovative art museums in the American South, the Brooks is recognized nationally for the museum's innovative educational programs, continual community outreach, and world-class art collection. One exhibition worth catching while in Memphis is The Crossroads of Memory: Carroll Cloar and the American South .
11:30 am	Lunch at the Brushmark Restaurant in the Brooks Museum	Executive Chef Wally Joe, known for his incredible culinary skills and creativity, takes the art of food to an entirely new level at the Brooks Museum. Brushmark is located inside the museum and features a spectacular panoramic view of luscious Overton Park. Enjoy this video of Wally Joe on CBS This Morning: The Dish . Food and beverage costs are not included in the registration fee.
1:00 pm	Private Tour of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital	St. Jude Children's Research Hospital , located in Memphis, is one of the world's premier pediatric cancer research centers. Its mission is to find cures for children with cancer and other catastrophic diseases through research and treatment. Consistent with the vision of its founder Danny Thomas, no child is denied treatment based on race, religion or a family's ability to pay. People from around the world visit St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. We've arranged for a special tour of the hospital so that you can see first-hand this amazing facility.
6:30 pm	Evening Activity to Enjoy Some "Memphis Musts"	Head to downtown to enjoy a "Memphis Must." Select from three options. Food and beverage costs are not included in the registration fee. Option 1: Take Me Out to the Ballgame Enjoy an evening at AutoZone Ballpark watching the Memphis Redbirds Baseball Game. The Memphis Redbirds are the Triple-A minor league baseball affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals. Located in the heart of Downtown Memphis, AutoZone Park was named the 2009 Minor League Ballpark of the Year by Baseball America. By combining the feel of such parks as Wrigley Field, Fenway Park, and Camden Yards, AutoZone Park is a state-of-the-art facility with classic, neo-traditional style. Option 2: You Can Go "Walkin' In Memphis!" Join Memphis Historian, Jimmy Ogle, as he walks you around the downtown area. In about 90 minutes, you will see and hear about the birth of rock-n-roll, the rise of the cotton trade, and a brief history of this once rowdy river town. Along the way, you'll see sweeping views of the river from the rooftop of the beautiful Peabody hotel, along with stately architectural landmarks, such as Court Square Fountain, the Lincoln American Tower and University of Memphis law school. You will also enjoy a delicious sit down evening meal.

		Option 3: Epicurean 101...Memphis Style Memphis is the pork BBQ capital of the world. We are known for our dry rub ribs and slow cooked shoulders. During this evening activity, you will get to learn the secrets of Memphis BBQ from one of the great Central BBQ Pit Masters. Think of this as a wine tasting class but with BBQ. This is an all pork event with no vegetarian option.
9:00 pm until...	Enjoy Beale St. at Silky O' Sullivan's	You will see why Memphis is known as the home of the blues. With a wonderful patio, live music, dueling pianos, late night snacks and goats that drink beer (yes...they really do!) What better way to close out the summer conference with this fun and relaxing evening. Regularly scheduled shuttles will take attendees back to the Holiday Inn throughout the evening.
