COURSE REQUIREMENTSCATALOG DESCRIPTION:

Write, produce content for a personal beat-driven blog that will house multimedia stories on important, complex topics in the city of Memphis; course will mirror collaborative opportunities underway in industry and provide students with the strongest multimedia material possible for portfolios.

ADDITIONAL DESCRIPTION:

During the semester students will write and produce content for the class online publication, Memphis Mirror. The mission of the publication is to provide multimedia stories on important, complex topics in the city of Memphis, specifically from underrepresented or covered groups in the city. Those groups include: racial and ethnic minorities, immigrants, women, children, LGBTQ+ individuals, religious minorities, people with disabilities, the poor, the homeless and students. The overall goal of this course is to mirror collaborative opportunities underway in industry and provide students with the strongest multimedia material possible for portfolios.

During the semester, students will work individually to produce high quality multimedia packages and projects, work that could be published in any online news publication. Students will use text, audio, video, infographics, maps, photography and social media in strategic ways to tell compelling and informative stories. Students are expected to come to the class with a foundational knowledge of each of these platforms; however, additional training will be provided for each.

PREREQUISITE:

JOUR 3526 and two advanced writing courses

REQUIRED MATERIALS:

Telling True Stories: A Nonfiction Writer's Guide from the Nieman Foundation at Harvard University. Kramer & Call (ed.) 2007
Associated Press Stylebook.

RECOMMENDED RESOURCES:

These sites are a great source of inspiration for stories you could do in your beat. It's a great idea to be up-to-date on the best work being done in the industry. Look for ideas everywhere, but this is a great place to start.

EQUIPMENT:

The use of a digital single lens reflex (DSLR) camera is required in this course. The Department of Journalism has provided cameras with 30-55mm lenses for students in this course. Cameras are limited to a 24-hour checkout. Students may use their own DSLR cameras with approval from the instructor. Lost, stolen, or broken cameras and equipment will be the financial responsibility of the student; the Department of Journalism will put a financial obligation hold on your registration until the camera/equipment is replaced. Cameras and equipment must be returned on time. Failure to return a camera on time will result in a one-letter grade deduction from your final grade for each day late. Students with unreturned/broken cameras will receive a grade of 0/F until the financial obligation is met. Cameras can be checked out through the Journalism Office, MJ 300/334.

OTHER EQUIPMENT NEEDS:

1. Access to a smartphone and/or digital camera and ability to upload images.
2. Access to a laptop or portable hard drive capable of holding 100GB (video storage)
3. Access to a laptop or smartphone for mobile reporting

CLASSROOM FORMAT:

The class will be run as a professional newsroom. Class sessions will consist of both lecture and laboratory time to be determined by the instructor. Class discussion will involve story coverage plans and training related to various writing and multimedia skills and multicultural considerations.

Participation is an important consideration in final grades.

ATTENDANCE:

Here's how attendance works: I'm not interested in hearing excuses. You get three free passes during the semester. After you cash in the passes, missed classes are reflected in your final grade. For example, if you miss one additional class, your final grade drops a letter grade. If you miss two more classes, your grade drops again. So if you miss six classes, your final grade drops two letters.

Assignments will require students to use a variety of software (WordPress, Adobe Premiere Pro, GoogleMaps, Adobe Photoshop, etc.) to tell news stories through a variety of narrative and visual platforms.

We will have budget meetings the week each assignment is pitched. Students/teams are required to come to the news budget meetings with a minimum of two viable story ideas that fit the overall mission of Memphis Mirror. So begin consuming area newspapers, radio broadcasts, television, and websites. Students also should consider story ideas from their previous story interviews and from personal observation and experience. The class and instructors will work to refine story ideas during the meeting to ensure each individual or group has clear direction. Failure to pitch a story during the news budget meetings will result in a lower grade.

ASSIGNMENTS:

During the semester each student will be required to complete assignments, which will be posted to Memphis Mirror. Stories and projects that do not meet the instructors' approval will not be posted, which will affect the final grade. Further information will be given for each required multimedia package during class time.

- Team assignments (seven total team assignments)
- In-class assignments
- Reading assignments
- Final portfolio

ONLINE PORTFOLIO:

Students will create a professional online portfolio as a tool to market themselves on the job market. The details and requirements of the portfolio will be discussed later in the semester.

GRADING:

Participation	50 points
10 in-class assignments	250 points (25 points each)
Five reading assignments	50 points (10 each)
Five project assignments	500 points (100 each)
Longform story revision	50 points
Final Project	200 points
Online Portfolio	200 points
Total	1,300 points

- A = 92%-100%
- A- = 90%-91%
- B+ = 87%-89%
- B = 82%-86%
- B- = 80%-81%
- C+ = 77%-79%
- C = 72%-76%
- C- = 70%-71%
- D = 65%-69%
- F = 0%-64%

GRADING PHILOSOPHY:

A=Professional quality work that could be use with little or no modification; B=Good to excellent work and exceeds requirement, but would require revision to be used professionally; C=Satisfactory work and adequately meets requirement, but would need significant revision; D=Barely satisfies minimum requirement and below average quality; F=Unsatisfactory work and does not meet minimum requirement. NOTE: Plusses and minuses may be given.

AP STYLE AND GRAMMAR:

All written work in this class should follow the AP Stylebook and accepted rules of grammar and punctuation. If you don't know the style for a particular phrase, look it up or ask your classmates or the instructor.

ERRORS AND PENALTIES:

Edit stories carefully. Your multimedia projects are graded for content minus mechanical errors. Spelling, grammar and style count for each activity. A fact error will result in the reduction of one letter grade for each error. Fact errors include inaccurate information, errors and typos in names, numbers, addresses, dates, quotes, and proper nouns.

Bottom line: REPORTERS MUST SELF-EDIT. Read and re-read, and edit and re-edit your assignments.

FINAL COMMENT:

Sharpening multimedia, reporting, and editing skills is a journey best undertaken as a team, with open hearts, open minds and good humor. You can learn much from your peers as from your instructor. I encourage you to speak frequently and work together on stories/assignments with your classmates. We will critique our own work in class and I will accept rewrites and additional multimedia elements to stories.

If you want to talk about the class, feel free to come and see me. Don't worry if you don't have an appointment. My office door is often open. If my office hours are inconvenient for you, make a special appointment and I will work to accommodate you. I want to help you succeed.

- Gather information from sources and from extensive research for a project related to the mission of MemphisMirror.com.
- Develop multimedia projects that incorporate several media platforms including: writing, photography, audio, audio-visual, video, and data visualization.

DEPARTMENT POLICIES

PORTFOLIO REQUIREMENT:

All students in the Department of Journalism and Strategic Media are required to develop and maintain an active portfolio of their work. Undergraduate students are to begin the portfolio in JRSM 3900 and contribute to it from every course thereafter. The portfolio should contain samples of the student's work from his/her courses and/or professional experience and should develop as the student builds skills. Portfolios will undergo a final, external review while students are enrolled in the capstone course for their majors.

Students may use any type of web hosting for their portfolios, but it must have an independent and professional URL. The department requires students to use WordPress to build their portfolio sites. Students are encouraged to consider purchasing a URL and hosting if they plan to use the portfolio for a long term, but must keep the portfolio active for six months following graduation from the University of Memphis.

Students should have a professional email address they plan to use throughout their professional life, via a common email service, such as Gmail or Yahoo.

All portfolios must contain the following items:

- Samples of work from courses and/or professional activities. (Example: Broadcasting students must include a video reel)
- A current résumé
- A personal profile
- Contact information/means of contact
- Social media links

Students might wish to include a blog, video reels, photograph galleries, SoundSlides presentations, design PDFs, audio files, and Storify pieces as examples of professional work. The professional work should ultimately be tailored to the career the student seeks after graduation. Thus, each student's portfolio should show a unique blend of work.

EMAIL:

You must have your UM email account activated. If you are using another provider such as Google, you are required to have your UM email forwarded to that account. Go to the <http://iam.memphis.edu> website to implement forwarding of UM email. You are required to check your email daily. You are responsible for complying with any email sent to you by your professor or the University.

MOBILE PHONES AND LAPTOPS:

Some classes require a tablet, laptop or a smartphone. Others do not. Your instructor will set the policy for her/her specific class.

ATTENDANCE:

Class attendance is mandatory in the Department of Journalism and Strategic Media. You may be assigned a failing grade for the semester for nonattendance, or habitual late arrival. No late work will be accepted without prior arrangements, which are acceptable to your professor. Students may not be permitted to make up any missing work unless it is for an absence because of illness or other catastrophic emergency such as a death in the family that can be documented (e.g. with a doctor's note or a copy of the newspaper obituary). This is a professional program for journalists who are expected to understand and comply with deadlines. If you have some problem making it to class on time make arrangements to fix the problem or consider taking another class. You should consider this class your "job" in the educational process and be on time just as you would elsewhere.

CHEATING:

In addition to university-wide policies stated in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, the Department of Journalism and Strategic Media considers making up quotes from sources, turning in substantially the same assignment for credit in two different courses, or a student receiving any assistance from others for work assigned to be done on his/her own, as acts of cheating punishable to the degree determined appropriate by the course instructor and department chair. That may include grade reductions or seeking dismissal of the student from the university.

Further, as this is a journalism/mass communication class, students are expected to comply with copyright law, and must have sufficient permission to use any copyrighted materials used in creative projects, unless otherwise informed in cases of exercises or reproduction.

"Your written work may be submitted to Turnitin.com, or a similar electronic detection method, for an evaluation of the originality of your ideas and proper use and attribution of sources. As part of this process, you may be required to submit electronic as well as hard copies of your written work, or be given other instructions to follow. By taking this course, you agree that all assignments may undergo this review process and that the assignment may be included as a source document in Turnitin.com's restricted access database solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism in such documents. Any assignment not submitted according to the procedures given by the instructor may be penalized or may not be accepted at all." (Office of Legal Counsel, October 17, 2005)

ONLINE SETEs:

You are urged to complete the SETEs evaluation of this course. Once your instructor has posted your grade, you can immediately see that grade, provided you completed a teacher evaluation for that class. How to access your evaluation forms: Log in using your UUID and email password; click on the gray "Student" tab; complete an evaluation for each course listed and hit the "Submit" button at the bottom of the form. It will only take a few minutes of your time. We take the evaluations very seriously and use them to improve courses and instructional quality. Your feedback is essential and will be appreciated.

DEADLINES:

Remember there's a reason "DEAD" makes up half the word "deadline." All deadlines are firm. This is journalism and strategic media. If you get into trouble, talk to your instructor. Exceptions will be made for reasonable circumstances if the student notifies the instructor prior to the due date.

AP STYLE AND GRAMMAR:

All written work in this class should follow the AP Stylebook and accepted rules of grammar and punctuation. If you don't know the style for a particular phrase, look it up or ask your classmates or the instructor.

DISABILITY:

Any student who feels s/he may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact your instructor privately to discuss your specific needs. Please contact the Office for Disability Services at 901-678-2880 in 110 Wilder Tower Hall to coordinate reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities.

DIVERSITY:

Students are required to respect the differences of others and treat all persons with respect. Discriminatory, derogatory and threatening language or behavior will not be tolerated. Further, students are expected to consider their work through a diverse mind. Mass communications reach a mass audience, and students should be aware of how those messages are received by a diverse audience.

WEATHER POLICY:

Always check with local media and the University of Memphis website regarding inclement weather. If the university is closed or classes are canceled, this course will not meet. However, students will still be responsible for that day's work.
