COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Catalog description

Development, scope, and modern role of public relations; emphasis on problem solving, lectures, and application of major public relations tools and practices.

Prerequisites

None

Textbooks, Software and Required Materials

Recommended

The Associated Press stylebook 2018 (or 2017). New York: Basic Books.

Required

Wilcox, D. L., Cameron, G. T., & Reber, B. H. (2016). Public relations: Strategies and tactics (11th ed.). Upper Saddle River, NJ: Pearson.

You are required to purchase the REVEL version of the textbook, as you will be assigned reading, writing, and other homework activities in REVEL.

While access to REVEL is required, the printed version of this text is optional - see purchasing options below. There are three ways to purchase REVEL access, so choose the option that works best for you:

Option #1: Purchase a REVEL access code from the campus bookstore.

Option #2: Online Instant Access: If you decide not to purchase REVEL from the bookstore, you can purchase REVEL access online. You will see this as an option after clicking on the course invite link that you will receive prior to the beginning of the semester from your instructor.

Option #3: When you register (via access code or online instant access), you also have the option of adding the print upgrade for $19.95 extra (no shipping cost).

Classroom format

This course is delivered online in an asynchronous format, which means that you will work at your own pace each week to cover the lecture, material, and assignments. The professor is available to answer any questions via email, and will make announcements each week regarding the content, preparing you for upcoming work, and other class necessities. Announcements for the week will occur on Mondays; all work for that week will be due on the following Sunday at 11:59pm Central.

Class discussion will involve the history, contemporary status, and future of the public relations field, along with the public relations four step process. Students will write and submit assignments that will be returned with feedback meant to encourage student improvement over the course of the semester.

Accessing the course website

1. Go to the University of Memphis eLearn home page: <http://elearn.memphis.edu>
2. Log in using your University of Memphis username and password.
3. In the Term Year course list available to you, click on the link for PBRL 3400-M50 to enter your course and read the instructions on the welcoming page.

Course Requirements

Course work will be accomplished every week, including readings, discussion posts, and quizzes to check your learning and comprehension. Each assignment must be completed by its due date and time (Central Time), which may vary by assignment, so make sure to check each individual due date and time to ensure that you post by the deadline.

Two exams will be part of your final grade. Tests will contain one or more units of study and consist of true/false and multiple-choice questions. Tests will be limited as to time. The computer will cut you off at the end of the prescribed time period, regardless of whether or not you have completed all questions. You may use your text to confirm an answer, but be aware that time limits will not allow you to spend much time flipping through the text. You should read and be familiar with each section before taking its test.

Online success

Your success in this online course will depend on your willingness to read the text, successfully complete quizzes, and complete written assignments/discussion papers, as scheduled. Success in taking quizzes and handling written assignments can be enhanced by studying the case problems at the end of the chapters, as well as the chapter content. Written assignments will be graded on content AND grammar, spelling, punctuation, and AP style (GSPS). Please refer to the grading rubrics on eCourseware for complete details.

All work and papers submitted must reflect critical thinking and knowledge of the material. In all our assignments, elaboration and examples (either from the text or elsewhere) are required. Items given as facts in elaboration must be referenced using APA referencing criteria (see below for APA citation resources).

Grading

There are 710 possible points in this class. At the end of the semester, your class average will be calculated and fractions will be rounded to the nearest whole number. Letter grades will be determined according to the scale below.

PR News Report	75 points
PR Specialty Paper	75 points

Case Study		100 points
Discussion Posts/Responses		130 points
Revel Assignments		130 points
Exams (2)	100 points each	200 points
Total		710 points

A+ = 96.5-100%; A = 92.5-96.4%; A- = 89.5-92.4%
 B+ = 86.5-89.4%; B = 82.5-86.4%; B- = 79.5-82.4%
 C+ = 76.5-79.4%; C = 72.5-76.4%; C- = 69.5-72.4%
 D+ = 66.5-69.4%; D = 59.5-66.4%
 F 0-59.4%

Other issues

Quality of Work

All work in this course should follow AP Style, including proper spelling, grammar, and language. A large part of public relations is having a polished written concept of what you are communicating. This includes all class work and presentations. Problems in these or other areas will result in the deduction of points.

I expect your work to be good and to be yours. What is not yours should be fully cited. In documenting sources you must use APA formatting. If you need help with writing and citing sources, please see me for resources. In addition, Purdue University's Online Writing Lab is an excellent resource, and can be found at <http://owl.english.purdue.edu>.

I am willing to read over and provide comments/edits on rough drafts of all work, but require a minimum of 24 hours for turnaround. This should be done via email, not eCourseware.

Repetition of Courses and Coursework

Students may not use or submit work from a previous course, even if it is the same course being repeated, to fulfill requirements for assignments in another course. If students wish to substantially rework the original submission, or to work with the same general idea, that may be permissible upon discussion with and written approval from the professor of the current course. All written work will be checked for policy adherence via TurnItIn.com. All creative work will be checked for policy adherence by the professor, and judged against previous submissions. The only exception to this policy is the student's online portfolio and its attendant pieces (for example, the resume and logo).

Late Work

All work and papers submitted will be considered final. You are required to ask via e-mail, set up an appointment in the chat room, or call your professor with your questions as to the proper completion of the assignment. It is your responsibility to ensure clarification of instructions. Late work may be accepted, but points will be deducted for lateness. Absolutely no work will be accepted, under any circumstances, beyond the final day of class (December 4, 2019 at 11:59pm Central).

Questions about Grades

If you would like to ask about a grade, please make an appointment to meet with me outside of class time, as I will not discuss grades via email or during class. If you have a question or problem with a grade, exam question, or assignment, you have 48 hours after the assignment is returned to you to contact me, or the grade stands. Your question or appeal must be stated in writing, citing your position and why you feel the mark is incorrect. The appeal should be turned in to the professor or sent via email within the stated time frame.

Additionally, you are responsible for tracking your grade online and meeting with the professor early in the semester if you are concerned about your overall grade. Meeting with the professor early and often can help both parties involved find ways to improve student-instructor understanding and quality of work.

ASSESSMENT AND OUTCOMES

Five Pillars in PBRL 3400

- Critical Thinking: Students must demonstrate an understanding of the importance of analyzing the needs, values, and attitudes of all stakeholder groups to determine the appropriate public relations strategies to implement.
- Media Literacy: Students learn the vocabulary and tools of the public relations industry. Students learn how to communicate with different media outlets and the importance of selecting the appropriate media to communicate with the intended audience.
- Multimedia: Students learn how public relations professionals use multimedia communication and visual storytelling through class discussion and assignments that examine real-world multimedia public relations tactics.
- Professionalism: Students learn the professional standards and strategies of the public relations industry by discussing and participating in PR activity simulations, learning public relations theory and history, and learning industry vocabulary. Finally, in small groups, students apply public relations theory and principles to analyze how public relations is practiced in a local organization and write a team case study paper and present it to the class.
- Writing: Students develop writing skills related to strategic planning, crisis communication, positioning and platform specific media requirements.

Professional values and competencies for PBRL 3400

JOURNALISM AND STRATEGIC MEDIA POLICIES

Portfolio requirement

All students in the Department of Journalism and Strategic Media are required to develop and maintain an active portfolio of their work. Undergraduate students are to begin the portfolio in JRSM 3900 and graduate students are to begin in JRSM 7002. Students are to contribute to it in every skills course thereafter. The portfolio should contain samples of the student's work from courses and/or professional experiences and should develop as the student builds skills. Portfolios will undergo a final, external review while students are enrolled in their capstone courses.

Students may use any type of web hosting for their portfolios, but it must have an independent and professional URL. Students may use any content management system, but students are encouraged to use WordPress, Wix or SquareSpace. Students are encouraged to consider purchasing a URL and hosting if they plan to use the portfolio for a long term, but they must keep the portfolio active for six months following graduation from the University of Memphis.

Students should have a professional email address they plan to use throughout their professional lives, via a common email service, such as Gmail.

All portfolios must contain the following items:

- Samples of work from courses and/or professional activities. (Example: Broadcasting students

- must include a video reel)
- A current résumé
 - A personal profile
 - Contact information/means of contact
 - Social media links

Students might wish to include a blog, video reels, photograph galleries, SoundSlides presentations, design PDFs, audio files and writing pieces as examples of professional work. The professional work should ultimately be tailored to the career the student seeks after graduation. Thus, each student's portfolio should show a unique blend of work.

Email

Students must have their UofM email accounts activated. Students using another provider, such as Google, are required to have all UofM email forwarded to that account. Students should go to the <http://iam.memphis.edu> website to implement forwarding of UofM email. Students are required to check their email daily. They are responsible for complying with any email sent to by professors or others in the University.

Electronic devices

Some classes require a tablet, laptop or a smartphone. Others do not. Instructors will set the policy for their specific classes.

Attendance

Class attendance is mandatory in Journalism and Strategic Media. Students may be assigned a failing grade for the semester for nonattendance or habitual late arrival. No late work will be accepted without prior arrangements with the class professor. Students may not be permitted to make up any missing work unless it is for an absence because of illness or other catastrophic emergency, such as a death in the family that can be documented (e.g. with a doctor's note or a copy of the newspaper obituary). Journalism and Strategic Media is a professional program, and students are expected to understand and comply with deadlines. Students who have some problem making it to class on time should make arrangements to correct the problem or consider taking another class. Students should consider this class as a "job" in the educational process and be on time just as they would elsewhere.

Course repetition

Majors and minors who fail to earn the minimum passing grade ("C-") in a class required by their program of study in Journalism and Strategic Media more than three times will be dropped from the program.

Students may not use or submit work from a previous course, even if it is the same course being repeated, to fulfill requirements for assignments in another course. If students wish to substantially rework the original submission, or to work with the same general idea, that may be permissible upon discussion with and written approval from the professor of the current course. All written work will be checked for policy adherence via TurnItIn.com. All creative work will be checked for policy adherence by the professor, and judged against previous submissions. The only exception to this policy is the student's online portfolio and its attendant pieces (for example, the résumé and logo).

Academic integrity

In addition to University-wide policies stated in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, the Department of Journalism and Strategic Media considers making up quotes from sources, turning in substantially the same assignment for credit in two different courses or students receiving any assistance from others for work assigned to be done on their own, as acts of cheating punishable to the degree determined appropriate by the course instructor and department chair. Punishment may include grade reductions or seeking dismissal of the student from the University.

Further, as this is a journalism and strategic media class, students are expected to comply with copyright law and must have sufficient permission to use any copyrighted materials used in creative projects, unless otherwise informed in cases of exercises or reproduction.

Your written work may be submitted to Turnitin.com, or a similar electronic detection method, for rating originality of your ideas. Also to evaluate proper use and assignment of sources. As part of this process, you may require to submit electronic as well as hard copies of your work. Other instructions to follow may also be given. By taking this course, you agree that all assignments may undergo this review process. The assignment may be included as a source document in Turnitin.com's restricted access database. It is solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism in such documents. Assignments not submitted according to the instructor's procedures may be penalized or may not be accepted at all. (Office of Legal Counsel, October 11, 2018)

Online SETEs

Students are urged to complete the SETEs evaluation of this course. Once the instructor has posted grades, student can immediately see that grade, provided they have completed a the SETE for that class. To access evaluation forms, students should log in to MyMemphis using their UUIDs and email passwords; click on the gray "Student" tab; complete an evaluation for each course listed and hit the "Submit" button at the bottom of the form. Completing the SETE will only take a few minutes. Faculty take the evaluations very seriously and use them to improve courses and instructional quality. Student feedback is essential and is appreciated.

Deadlines

All deadlines are firm. This is journalism and strategic media. Students needing an extension on an assignment must receive approval from the instructor. Exceptions will be made for reasonable circumstances if the student notifies the instructor prior to the due date.

AP Style and grammar

All written work in this class must follow the AP Stylebook and accepted rules of grammar and punctuation. Students are responsible for learning these rules and checking their work for errors.

Disability and accommodations

Students who need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact the Office for Disability Resources for Students at 901-678-2880 in 110 Wilder Tower Hall to coordinate reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities.

Diversity and inclusivity

Students are required to respect the differences of others and treat all persons with respect.

Discriminatory, derogatory and threatening language or behavior will not be tolerated. Further, students are expected to consider their work through a diverse mind. Media reach a mass audience, and students should be aware of how those messages are received by a diverse audience.

Weather policy

Always check with local media and the University of Memphis website regarding inclement weather. If the University is closed or classes are canceled, this course will not meet. However, students will still be responsible for that day's work.

Student support

Students who are experiencing personal or academic challenges including, but not limited to food or housing issues, family needs, or other stressors, should visit the Office of Student Accountability, Outreach & Support page to learn about resources that can help: <https://www.memphis.edu/saos/sos/crisis-resources.php>. Any student who faces personal challenges including, but not limited to securing their food or housing and believes this may affect their performance in the course is urged to contact the Office of Student Accountability, Outreach & Support (901-678-2187) located in the University Center, Suite 359 for assistance. Students may also talk with course instructors about the challenges they are experiencing. Instructors may be able to assist in connecting with campus or community support.
