GRADING AND COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

This is meant as a general guideline to the major assignments within the class. More detail will be provided on Canvas. Deadlines will be listed on each assignment. All work should be turned in as a Word document via Dropbox in Canvas unless otherwise noted.

Reading blog posts, 20%. You will be asked to respond to the readings in the form of a 300-word blog post that you will submit in Dropbox. The idea is not to regurgitate the readings but to analyze them by providing insights and comments that demonstrate knowledge and deep thinking about theories, methods, and concepts found in the week's readings. You may make connections to readings from other weeks, connections to something you have read about or learned in popular media and more. The purpose is to interact with the material in such a way as to be prepared to discuss it in class, and to write out your thoughts on the ideas presented. This weekly assignment will also help you develop your voice throughout the semester. The blog format is to allow you maximum flexibility in finding creative, engaging, and fun ways to synthesize the readings and develop killer content.

You will be given a prompt each week to help guide the direction of your writing.

Organization analysis, 40%. You will choose one organization and conduct a complete and thorough social media audit and analysis of their efforts. You will report on the organization's current efforts and make suggestions for improvement based upon discussions and readings from the course. This will take the form of an official audit (paper). More details will be provided.

Class participation, 10%. You are expected to attend class and participate in the discussion. Because the focus of the class is on social media, you are also expected to be actively engaged on social media platforms, specifically Twitter.

Grading

Reading blog posts	30%
Assignments	30%

Quality of work

All work in the course should follow AP style, including proper spelling, grammar, and language. A large part of mass communication is having a polished written concept of what you are communicating. This includes all class work and presentations. Although line editing is unlikely, problems in these or other areas will result in the deduction of points.

I expect your work to be good and to be yours. What is not yours should be properly cited. In documenting sources, you should use APA formatting (both internal and external). If you need help with writing and citing sources, Purdue University's OWL is an excellent resource and can be found at https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/purdue\_owl.html

Other issues

The best and quickest way to contact me is via email (ksmarks@memphis.edu). Do not use the email within Canvas, use my Memphis.edu email. I will respond to email within 24 – 48 hours. If you have a problem, do not let it snowball. Contact me ASAP.

JOURNALISM AND STRATEGIC MEDIA POLICIES

Portfolio requirement

All students in the Department of Journalism and Strategic Media are required to develop and maintain an active portfolio of their work. Graduate students are to begin their portfolio in JRSM 7002. The portfolio should contain samples of the student's work from courses and/or professional experiences and should develop as the student builds skills.

Students may use any type of web hosting for their portfolios, but it must have an independent and professional URL. Students may use any content management system, but students are encouraged to use WordPress, Wix or Squarespace. Students are encouraged to consider purchasing a URL and hosting if they plan to use the portfolio for a long term, but they must keep the portfolio active for six months following graduation from the University of Memphis.

Students should have a professional email address they plan to use throughout their professional lives, via a common email service, such as Gmail.

All portfolios must contain the following items:

- Samples of work from courses and/or professional activities.
- A current résumé
- A personal profile
- Contact information/means of contact
- Social media links

Students might wish to include a blog, video reels, photograph galleries, SoundSlides presentations, design PDFs, audio files and writing pieces as examples of professional work. The professional work should ultimately be tailored to the career the student seeks after graduation. Thus, each student's portfolio should show a unique blend of work.

Email

Students must have their UofM email accounts activated. Students using another provider, such as Google, are required to have all UofM email forwarded to that account. Students should go to the <http://iam.memphis.edu> website to implement forwarding of UofM email. Students are required to check their email daily. They are responsible for complying with any email sent to by professors or others in the University.

Electronic devices

Some classes require a tablet, laptop or a smartphone. Others do not. Instructors will set the policy for their specific classes.

Academic integrity

In addition to university-wide policies stated in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, the Department of Journalism and Strategic Media considers making up quotes from sources, turning in substantially the same assignment for credit in two different courses or students receiving any assistance from others for work assigned to be done on their own, as acts of cheating punishable to the degree determined appropriate by the course instructor and department chair. Punishment may include grade reductions or seeking dismissal of the student from the University.

Further, as this is a journalism and strategic media class, students are expected to comply with copyright law and must have sufficient permission to use any copyrighted materials used in creative projects, unless otherwise informed in cases of exercises or reproduction.

Your written work may be submitted to Turnitin.com, or a similar electronic detection method, for rating originality of your ideas. Also, to evaluate proper use and assignment of sources. As part of this process, you may be required to submit electronic as well as hard copies of your work. Other instructions to follow may also be given. By taking this course, you agree that all assignments may undergo this review process. The assignment may be included as a source document in Turnitin.com's restricted access database. It is solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism in such documents. Assignments not submitted according to the instructor's procedures may be penalized or may not be accepted at all.
