Certificate in Health Law

The goal of the Certificate in Health Law program is to enable students who are interested in a career working in a health-related industry, on health policy matters, advocating for individual or population health, or otherwise interested in the study of health law, to follow a specialized course of study, to work closely with other students interested in the area and to receive guidance from faculty members with an interest and expertise in the area.

Course Requirements:

Core (Doctrinal):
a. Health Law Survey (3)
b. Administrative Law (3)

It is recommended students in the Certificate program take Health Law and Administrative Law in the 2L year.

Electives:
Students are required to have an additional 9 credits of electives, which must include a health law writing requirement and an experiential learning course (which may also meet the Law School’s writing and skills course requirements).

More information on these requirements, including a list of potential electives, may be found on the Certificate website at: http://www.memphis.edu/law/programs/health-law-certificate.php.

Non-Course Requirements:

Students must complete at least twenty-five hours of non-course work related to health law while enrolled in the Certificate program. Students must also attend the annual meeting of students enrolled in the Certificate of Health Law program. More information on these requirements may be found on the Certificate website at: http://www.memphis.edu/law/programs/health-law-certificate.php.

Grade Point Requirement:

To satisfy the requirements of the Certificate in Health Law, each student must demonstrate a successful understanding of the fundamentals of health law by holding an overall GPA of 2.5, and obtaining at least a C in and an overall GPA of at least 2.5 in the building-block courses of Torts I and Torts II, and Constitutional Law. Students must receive at least a 3.0 GPA in all courses taken to satisfy the certificate. To receive the certificate with honors, a student must complete the graded courses required to satisfy the certificate with a GPA of 3.5 or higher and receive a grade of Excellent in at least two-thirds of the non-graded coursework taken to satisfy the certificate requirements.
