¹Trial Advocacy will meet all three class hours in separate adjunct-professor sections; Trial Ad will not meet in big lecture. In the spring, we are trying something new, practice-specific Trial Ad sections. Section 011 (Frank) will teach Trial Ad using civil cases; Section 014 (Nichols) will teach Trial Ad using criminal cases; Section 012 (Laurenzi) and section 013 (Craft) will teach using both civil and criminal cases.

²Permit required. Advanced Criminal Prosecution is a 1-credit intersession course offered during the Law School's 2017 Spring Break. The Course will meet each day from Monday, March 6 to Friday, March 10, 2017 and will be filled via application. Please contact Professor D. Schaffzin with any questions.

³Students who have previously taken one of the five fall/spring Clinics are eligible to enroll as an Advanced Clinic student in that same clinic. If you have questions, please see the Professor who directs and teaches the base Clinic course.
