FOOTNOTES

⁵ Introduction to Critical Race Theory will meet January 4-11 (including 8, but not 9) and then on January 15. There will be an exam and other work due after January 15; dates TBD.
