FOOTNOTES

² In addition to the weekly class session, Mediation Clinic students must commit to participate in mandatory, full-day orientation sessions to be scheduled on the first two Saturdays of the spring semester. Each Mediation Clinic student will be required to pay a fee of $100 to cover costs related to the Rule 31 training offered as part of the course curriculum. The Tennessee Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission also charges at the time of application an additional fee of $100.

⁵ Students who have satisfied their Advanced Writing requirement with another seminar OR with a Law Review Note should not enroll in a seminar unless approved by Law School Registrar, Cheryl Edwards. Email her with questions at lawregistrar@memphis.edu.
