Registration Status

Depending on when you register, a late registration fee may be determined the Late Registration period.

You may register during the following times
From Begin Time To End Time

- You have no Holds which prevent registration.
- Your Academic Standing permits registration.
- Your Student Status permits registration.
SEMINARS

• Seminars satisfy the Advanced Writing Requirement.

• These courses are limited enrollment by design.

• Students who need a seminar to satisfy the Advanced Writing Requirement have priority for seminar seats.

• If you have already satisfied your Advanced Writing Requirement, you may not enroll in a seminar. After the initial registration period ends, if seminar seats remain available, we will make the seats available and announce the change via the blog.

• Note that completion of the first-year full-time curriculum is a prerequisite for enrolling in any seminar.
