FOOTNOTES

² In addition to the weekly class session, Mediation Clinic students must commit to participate in mandatory, full-day orientation sessions to be scheduled on the first two Saturdays of the spring semester. Each Mediation Clinic student will be required to pay a fee of $100 to cover costs related to the Rule 31 training offered as part of the course curriculum. The Tennessee Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission also charges at the time of application an additional fee of $100.

³ Students who have previously taken a fall or spring Clinic course are eligible to enroll as an Advanced Clinic student in that same clinic. If students have questions, please see the Professor who directs and teaches the base Clinic course.

⁴ Courses require a permit.

Clinics: The supervising professor will notify the Registrar's office to issue the permit. The student will be notified by the Registrar's office to register for the course. Externships: Prof. Vescovo will notify the Registrar's office to issue the permit. Research: (Course 711): Must have approved from Dean Romantz; he will notify the Registrar's office to issue a permit. Moot Court travel teams: Prof. Kritchevsky will provide the Law Registrar with a list and a permit will be issued. Students will receive an email from the Law Registrar once the permit is issued.

⁶ Information Privacy Law is only offered every other year and will not be offered again until 2028.
