STUDENT-INITIATED PROJECT FORM

A Student-Initiated Project Form must be submitted for pro bono placements that are not on the pre-approved list or advertised on Symplicity. All Student-Initiated Project Forms must be submitted and approved before any pro bono service is performed at the proposed placement.

Before submitting the Student-Initiated Project Form, please make sure the proposed project is in compliance with the law school's Pro Bono Handbook. The Pro Bono Handbook can be accessed at <http://www.memphis.edu/law/career/theprobonohandbook.pdf>. If you have a question about what projects qualify, please contact Callie Caldwell.

Group Petitions: If the proposed project is to be performed by more than one student, the entire group should submit one form with a list of all the participants attached. The group should also designate a representative below.
