

Adjunct Librarian, Research & Instructional Services

The University of Memphis seeks dynamic, energetic individuals to join the Research and Instructional Services Department as part-time librarians. Responsibilities will include providing direct user assistance and assisting with providing formal and informal instruction. Application review begins immediately and may continue until filled. MLS required.

To apply, submit a cover letter relating your background and experience to the responsibilities of the position, a current resume, and contact information for at least 5 references to: Mrs. Nancy Massey, Personnel Associate, 126 Ned R. McWherter Library, University of Memphis, Memphis, TN 38152; or submit electronically to nmassey@memphis.edu. Full description and requirements for the position are at: <http://www.memphis.edu/libraries>. The University of Memphis is an EEO/Affirmative Action employer.