

DISSERTATION Writers Retreat

Virtual Event | January, 12-14, 2021

Are you a UofM student working on your dissertation? Attend this free, virtual retreat focusing on strategies for completing your dissertation and how to plan for life after its completion. Each day will begin with a check-in, feature a presentation, and have time set aside for writing. Participants will be assigned to groups of peers at the same stage of the writing process. CWC consultants and librarians will be available throughout the day for writing & research assistance. Zoom links will be provided to registered participants before the event. For more information, visit memphis.edu/libraries/about/dwr.php

Register by January 2, 2021: bit.ly/dwr2021

TUESDAY, JANUARY 12

- 9 AM Check-In Morning Session: SMART Goals
- 10 AM Writing Session
- 1 PM Presentation: Writing Tips, Tricks & Peer Support, Stephen Turner (CWC)
- 2 PM Writing Session
- 5 PM Check-In Evening Session: SMART Goals

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13

- 9 AM Check-In Morning Session: Putting Yourself (and Health) First
- 10 AM Writing Session
- 1 PM Presentation: A Mindful Approach to Dissertation Stress, Rivian Lewin (PSC)
- 2 PM Writing Session
- 5 PM Check-In Evening Session: Putting Yourself (and Health) First

THURSDAY, JANUARY 14

- 9 AM Check-In Morning Session: Be Prepared
- 10 AM Writing Session
- 1 PM Presentation: What Comes Next? Preparing for the Job Market, Michael Harris (Libraries)
- 2 PM Writing Session
- 5 PM Check-In Evening Session: Be Prepared