The facilities of the University Libraries are provided to support study and the use of library resources. Use of library space for other activities must be approved in advance. This includes exterior spaces immediately adjacent to the building. Requests must be submitted to the Libraries Administration Office (McWherter Library, Room 204) at least 48 hours in advance. Activities that generate high noise levels or that will severely disrupt the library environment will not be approved. Please type or print in ink.
