

iPad Policy

The Health Sciences Library (HSL) provides iPads with wireless capability available for U of M students, staff, and faculty. The iPads support an information skills and mobile technology project and will be used in hands-on learning workshops. They may not be taken outside the Health Sciences Library.

The iPads are not for personal use; they are provided for library workshops and related purposes only. By checking out an HSL iPad, you agree to the following:

- The checkout period for this iPad is 2 hours, or the duration of the workshop.
- You are responsible for the iPad and its accessories while it is checked out to you.
- You must save data (to OneDrive, or personal storage) to avoid automatic deletion.
- You must not leave the iPad unattended.
- You will log out of all personal accounts before returning the iPad.
- Do not remove any library stickers, labeling, etc.

Users of this iPad are expected to abide by all above stipulations including the

IT 6003 - Acceptable Use of Information Technology Resources, as well as copyright law and all University policies and procedures.

"The copyright law of the United States (Title 17 United States Code) governs the reproduction, distribution, adaptation, public performance and public display of any copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in law, non-profit libraries are authorized to lend, lease or rent copies of computer programs to patrons on a nonprofit basis and for nonprofit purposes. Any person who makes an unauthorized copy or adaptation of the computer program, or redistributes the loan copy, or publicly performs or displays the computer program, except as permitted by the Title 17 of the United States Code, may be liable to copyright infringement."
