The following library policies apply:

- Your card will be valid for 1 year.
- You may checkout up to 10 books at a time, and the loan period for most books is 30 days.
- You must present your Special Privilege Card in order to check out materials. The Card is not transferable.
- Books may be recalled for use by another patron after 14 days.
- You are personally and financially responsible for materials charged on your Special Privilege Card. If you lose your card, please notify library personnel immediately.
- There is a $10 replacement fee for the Card.
- Fines will accrue at the rate of 25 cents per day per overdue book for 30 days. After 30 days, the borrower will be charged an overdue fine, plus the replacement cost and a processing fee per item.
- Failure to abide by these provisions will result in the cancellation of your Card.

Your signature on this application and your acceptance and use of our University Libraries' Special Privilege Card indicates that you have read this information and agree to abide by the provisions.
