

University Libraries, University of Memphis
Special Collections Department
Binding Policy

Policy Statement:

The University Libraries does not provide book binding or repair services for any materials not owned or collected by the University Libraries. This includes, but is not limited to, print serials, books in disrepair, books or other textual items. No services are provided outside the University Libraries. Individuals seeking such services are directed to outside businesses.

Revised and Approved July 2018