Nowhere else in the state will top academic performers find a richer, more diverse experience than at the Helen Hardin Honors College. In the Honors College, you can chart your personalized path through the honors curriculum, live with high-achieving classmates and experience learning that takes you beyond the classroom. Honors students have access to benefits and opportunities available only to individuals who are up to the challenge:

- Small class sizes
- Personalized curriculum
- Innovative honors seminars with unique topics
- Opportunities for undergraduate research, study abroad, and internships as early as your freshman year
- Special speaker series and activities just for honors students
- Priority course registration
- Special campus housing for honors freshmen in the Living Learning Complex
- Opportunity to earn your degree with “University Honors” (diploma/transcript notation)

To enroll in the Honors College as a new freshman, you need the following credentials:

- 3.25 high school GPA
- 24 ACT/1190 SAT

If you don’t meet the requirements for honors when you enter the University of Memphis, you may join as early as the end of your first semester if you have a 3.25 college GPA.
