OFFICE OF VICTIM SERVICES

OFFICE OF VICTIM SERVICES PARTNERS
Title IX Prevention Center
The goal of the Office for Institutional Equity's Title IX Prevention Center is to prevent and reduce the occurrence of interpersonal violence on our campus. To achieve this, the Prevention Center provides training, awareness initiatives, programming and support for preventing sexual assault, stalking, harassment and dating/domestic violence for the University of Memphis community.

The Safety Net Organization
Safety Net is a student-led, on-campus support group for survivors of sexual assault and their allies. Safety Net’s goal is to be a safe space, free from victim blaming or social prejudice, where peer-to-peer resources and comfort can be found while individuals maneuver their own path to healing. Safety Net believes no one should have to survive alone and that hands are for healing, not for harm. For more information, visit Safety Net’s Tiger Zone page.

Sexual Assault Prevention & Awareness Coalition
The Sexual Assault Prevention and Awareness Coalition (SAPAC) holds student-led programs, trainings and events to educate the University of Memphis community and engage community members in dialogue about interpersonal violence. Its mission is to reduce incidents of harm, educate on sexual and reproductive health and create an inclusive and diverse environment where students feel safe discussing issues of interpersonal violence. For more information, visit SAPAC’s Tiger Zone Page.

A victim coordinator is mandated to report shared information if:
- An intention to harm oneself or another is disclosed; or
- There is a suspicion of child abuse or neglect.
The Office of Victim Services is here to advocate for students’ rights, provide emergency assistance in the immediate aftermath of a crime, provide continuous support to minimize associated trauma and facilitate participation in the criminal justice system as well as the University’s process.

What a victim coordinator can do to help:
- Work with a student to develop a safety plan;
- Accompany and support students through all medical and counseling issues (at the student’s request);
- Provide emotional support to the student while he or she seeks to address his or her thoughts and feelings that arise because of being victimized, including referring the student to counseling agencies on or off campus;
- Act as a liaison between the victim of a crime and any legal services which may be rendered to address their needs, including court hearings, the filing of protection orders, law enforcement interviews, composition of a Victim Impact Statement, lineups, depositions, etc. (at the student’s request);
- Ensure that students receive fair treatment in accordance with the State of Tennessee’s Victim’s Bill of Rights; and
- Assist with completing an application for victim compensation (if applicable).
