JOIN A REGISTERED
STUDENT ORGANIZATION

JOINING AN RSO IS EASY! HERE ARE DIFFERENT WAYS TO FIND THE RIGHT ONE FOR YOU.

- Attend the Student Involvement Fair in the fall or spring semester.
  - Learn about the different organizations we have on campus and meet students in those respective organizations,
  - Sign up on their email list,
  - Go to their meeting!
- Look out for flyers and posters around campus. Flyers can contain information about meeting times or upcoming events.
- Stay up-to-date with upcoming events in campus e-news sent frequently to your inbox.
- Attend events - RSOs host events throughout the year. Attend an event and get to learn first-hand about their organization.
- The Involvement Zone on the 2nd floor of the UC hosts several offices including:
  - Student Leadership and Involvement
  - Multicultural Affairs
  - Adult & Commuter Services
  - Student Government Association
- Each office can provide you more information about certain organizations as well as different activities you can participate in to get involved.
- Check out Tiger Zone – a one-stop shop for different organizations. Not all RSOs have offices, so check out Tiger Zone to get information about an organization you are interested in.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES COUNCIL (SAC)

College is about seeing things from a fresh perspective. Opening our eyes to more than just studies. SAC brainstorms to create unique programs, events and services that make the campus feel alive — with a mindful eye to diversity at all times. Most of what we plan will transform your college experience for the better. Tigers are cool people. Our campus is inspiring. SAC works hard to keep it that way.
