

Tarana Burke, Founder of 'Me Too' Movement

'Me Too' Movement Founder Tarana Burke will speak as part of the Women's History Month Closing Ceremony.

HIV and Sexual Health Education Table

The Public Health Student Association will host a table to bring awareness about sexual health and HIV.

Intersections Table: Myths & Sexual Violence

Title IX: Prevention Center & Psychology Dept. will explore the myths surrounding sexual violence.

Bystander BBQ

ZBT & Sexual Assault Prevention & Awareness Coalition (SAPAC) will be hosting a BBQ where members of the UofM community can learn more about bystander intervention techniques and consent.

Say My Name

Safety Net will host its "Say My Name" event that allows the UofM Community the ability to present a spoken word, testimonial, or written piece about the effects of interpersonal violence.

Intersections Table: LGBTQIA+ & Sexual Violence

Title IX: Prevention Center & Stonewall Tigers will explore of the prevalence of sexual violence and harm against members of the LGBTQIA+ community.

Rape Crisis Center Grand Opening

Shelby County Crime Victims & Rape Crisis Center will be opening its new location at 1060 Madison.

'The Mask You Live In' Documentary

Ph.D. student Corey Reed show clips from and guide a discussion about this documentary, which looks at harmful social norms that can develop for boys and young men.

Tigers Thrive: Alcohol-Facilitated Sexual Violence Table

The UofM's Integrated Wellness Committee will host a table exploring the issue of alcohol-facilitated sexual violence.

STI(LL) Sexy: Sex Positive Workshop (on STIs, safe sex)

Safety Net will host a Zine Workshop where students can craft their own works of art around healthy sexuality.

Intersections Table: Men & Sexual Violence

Title IX: Prevention Center & Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. will look at the intersections between sexual assault and men.

'Roll Red Roll' Documentary

Memphis Area Women's Council & Title IX: Prevention Center will host a screening of Roll, Red, Roll, a documentary that explores sports culture, social media, and peer pressure in the Steubenville, OH rape case. Panel to follow.

Safe Haven Meet-up

Safety Net's regular peer-led meetings for survivors of sexual violence and their allies.

Intersections Table: Disabilities & Sexual Violence

Title IX: Prevention Center, Disability Resources for Students, & SAPAC will look at the prevalence of sexual violence and harm against those with disabilities.

Diversity & Inclusion Celebration (with sexual violence prevention activities)

The Psychology Department will host its Diversity & Inclusion celebration, an in honor of Sexual Assault Awareness Month, will have activities to bring awareness.

Intersections Table: Self-Care & Sexual Trauma

Title IX: Prevention Center and Victim Services Coordinators will discuss care for those who are victim survivors of sexual trauma and violence.

Holistic Care (Healing Yoga)

SAPAC will be hosting a yoga and self-care event. The healing benefits of yoga will be explained.

Healthy Relationships Fair

Title IX: Prevention Center & SAPAC will host a fair to encourage students to develop key elements of healthy relationships, including boundaries, communication, consent, etc.

Denim Day

SAPAC & SGA will highlight Denim Day, where the UofM campus will be encouraged to wear jeans and support survivors of sexual violence. More information can be found at: <https://www.denimdayinfo.org>