

TITLE VI EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IS THE LAW

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits federally assisted programs from discriminating based on race, color or national origin.

The University of Memphis also requires that its services be offered to all eligible persons regardless of race, color or national origin.

Prohibited Practices Include:

- Denying program services because of race, color or national origin.
- Applying different standards for the same types of services.
- Segregating clients solely because of race, color or national origin.
- Restricting access to program services or benefits.
- Impairing human dignity by manner of address or treatment.
- Failing to make allowances for limited English proficiency (LEP).

Should you feel you have been discriminated against, contact your local Title VI representative listed below:
