

PHIL 3452

F E M I N I S M (S)

In this class, we will focus on the intellectual history of black feminists. We will start with nineteenth-century black feminists such as Maria W. Stewart, Sojourner Truth, and Anna Julia Cooper. We will also explore several ideas which characterize black feminism such as Womanism, Womanist Theology, the philosophies of rest and dreaming, misogynoir, Hip Hop feminism, and intersectionality. We will read works by Barbara Smith, Patricia Hill Collins, bell hooks, Tricia Hersey, Gwendolyn Pough, Joan Morgan, and Audre Lorde.

Note: This course can satisfy the Humanities or the Minor Elective requirement for the African-American Studies Minor, and is required for the Women's and Gender Studies Minor.
