

Self-Advising Form for Political Science Majors

Academic Advising

Students are required to consult their academic advisor each semester prior to registration to have their advising hold, aka Alternate PIN, removed.

Students who meet the following criteria may submit the Self-Advising Form:

- You must have a declared major in Political Science.
- You must be in good academic standing (no academic warning or probation).
- You must have a minimum overall GPA of a 2.25.

Students with any of the following cannot self-advise:

- Student athletes
 - Graduating seniors
 - Students who are new to the Department of Political Science
- If you are not a current Political Science major DO NOT submit this form. To declare Political Science as your major please complete the Program Change Form for Undergraduates with the College of Arts and Sciences.
 - If you want to request an advising appointment DO NOT submit this form. Instead you should book an appointment with your assigned advisor through Navigate.
 - If you are a graduate student or taking 6000 – 7000 level courses DO NOT submit this form. Contact the Graduate Advisor for advising information.

*Check your University of Memphis email account for correspondence related to your request within 24 - 72 hours.
Requests are processed in the order in which they are received*
