Crime Commission to Participate in National Night Out

MEMPHIS, TN – Officials with the Memphis Shelby Crime Commission will be sharing information about the Operation: Safe Community crime plan at various National Night Out events this evening.

"This evening is an opportunity for concerned citizens throughout the community to show they are fed up with crime and are willing to be actively engaged in making our community safer," said Bill Gibbons, president of the Memphis Shelby Crime Commission.

Crime Commission Vice President of Community Engagement Harold Collins stated, "National Night Out is important because it builds relationships between neighbors, the community, and law enforcement. This is our way of continuing to make our community safer."

Representatives of the Crime Commission will be sharing information about the local Operation: Safe Community crime plan at the following National Night Out events this evening:

4:30-6:15 pm: Union Grove Baptist Church, 2285 Frayser Blvd.
