

Graduate Certificate in Health Systems Leadership

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The graduate certificate prepares students to design and drive innovation in healthcare administration, policy development, and community health leadership. This certificate enhances opportunities for those in healthcare and clinical settings.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Students will learn to apply principles of leadership, governance, and management, create a vision, empower team members, foster collaboration, and guide decision-making.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Graduates may work in hospitals, government agencies, nonprofits, and academic institutions as healthcare executives, quality improvement managers, informatics specialists, and leaders in nursing and healthcare associations
