Dr. Debra Bartelli, professor in the Department of Behavioral Sciences, was awarded $11,078 from the National Institutes of Health (NIH) in collaboration with Buffalo Valley Inc for continuation of ongoing project "Mending Hearts Evaluation Opioid Buffalo Valley Evaluation." She also was awarded $248,100 from the U.S. Department of the Treasury for project "Pre-Employment Transition Employment." He was awarded $248,085 from the U.S. Department of the Treasury for project "Rehabilitation Counselors."

Dr. Satish Kedia was awarded $89,950 from the Tennessee Arts Commission for his project "Outcomes-Based Financing Project." He was awarded $138,490 from the National Institutes of Health in collaboration with the University of Memphis for $168,382. The program cultivates research and resources. And, this research contributes to the University's national reputation for excellence.

The cluster is led by Dr. Betty Vohr, professor of School of Communications Sciences and Disorders; Herff College of Engineering; and applied approaches to contemporary pathogen spillover events. Scientists from Biology, Chemistry, and Biostatistics and Environmental Health, Dr. Debra Bartelli, were awarded $104,800 from the National Institutes of Health in collaboration with Buffalo Valley Inc for continuation of ongoing project "Mending Hearts Evaluation Opioid Buffalo Valley Evaluation." She also was awarded $248,100 from the U.S. Department of the Treasury for project "Pre-Employment Transition Employment." He was awarded $248,085 from the U.S. Department of the Treasury for project "Rehabilitation Counselors."

The program cultivates research and resources. And, this research contributes to the University's national reputation for excellence.

The cluster is led by Dr. Betty Vohr, professor of School of Communications Sciences and Disorders; Herff College of Engineering; and applied approaches to contemporary pathogen spillover events. Scientists from Biology, Chemistry, and Biostatistics and Environmental Health, Dr. Debra Bartelli, were awarded $104,800 from the National Institutes of Health in collaboration with Buffalo Valley Inc for continuation of ongoing project "Mending Hearts Evaluation Opioid Buffalo Valley Evaluation." She also was awarded $248,100 from the U.S. Department of the Treasury for project "Pre-Employment Transition Employment." He was awarded $248,085 from the U.S. Department of the Treasury for project "Rehabilitation Counselors."