

RWJ Interdisciplinary Research Leaders 2019 Call for Applications
Internal Limited Submission Preproposal

Team Research Essay Instructions

The three team members identified by the applicant should collaborate to develop and submit a team research essay that addresses the questions outlined below. You must use 0.75-inch margins, 11-point Arial type in black font, and 1.5-line spacing in this template. The team research essay should be no more than two pages in length. We will not review essays that exceed the two-page limit or that do not conform to the formatting instructions above. Please delete these general instructions and the instructions below in blue font before uploading your completed essay to the online system.

You should:

- Print this template in its entirety before you begin, so you have the instructions available at all times.
- Complete the identifying information shown below this block of instructions.
- Delete this block of instructions and the instructions in blue prior to uploading this template.
- Submit this document to ResearchDev@memphis.edu no later than midnight on February 13, 2019. All preproposals will be reviewed in accordance with the Limited Submission Process.

Identifying Information

Project Title: (your project title goes here)

Team Member Names: (your three team member names go here)

Team Research Essay

Describe the problem that your team proposes to examine in the Interdisciplinary Research Leaders program, as well as the proposed research question(s) and methodological approach that your team will pursue to address this problem. Why is this issue important? How can the proposed research facilitate change? Identify the types of decision-makers who might use the results of the proposed research to advance a Culture of Health.