Memorandum

To: Student Staff Candidates

Background Checks

Subject:

Effective July 1, 2011, in accordance with Tennessee state law (SB 1648, HB 1951) all student applicants recommended for a student staff position with the University of Memphis, Department of Housing and Residence Life will be subject to a criminal background check prior to the start of training/employment. Student Staff must also have their fingerprints on file with the University of Memphis Campus Police Department. This process will be coordinated after employment begins. Per state law (SB 1648, HB 1951) the candidates must assume the cost of their own background check. Employment offers and continued employment is contingent upon receiving a satisfactory report.

Background checks exclude credit or other reports unless required in job specifications. Examples of information obtained through conducting a background search might include confirmation of the individual's identity, review of a criminal conviction record, if any, and/ or verification of any license, certificate or degree required for the position.

Have you ever been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor?    Yes        No   

If yes, please explain or you may discuss this question with the Director of Housing and Residence Life at 678-2295.

FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

DISCLOSURE AND AUTHORIZATION FORM

The University of Memphis may request, or has decided to request, a consumer report to be obtained from a consumer reporting agency to assist it in making a decision pertaining to your application for employment, reclassification, transfer or retention as an employee at the University of Memphis.

You are considered a “consumer” under the Fair Credit Reporting Act and have certain rights there under. A “consumer reporting agency” is a person or business that, for monetary fees, regularly assembles or evaluates consumer credit information or other information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports. A “consumer report” is any written, oral or other communication of any information by a consumer reporting agency concerning a consumer’s credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics or mode of living which is used or collected for the purpose of serving as a factor in establishing the consumer’s eligibility for employment purposes.

The information requested may include, but not be limited to: verification of identification and/or Social Security number; checks of criminal history, if any; and verification of employment, education, and credentials or licenses held by you. YOUR CREDIT HISTORY WILL NOT BE REQUESTED OR RECEIVED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS. Any information contained in such reports may be taken into consideration in evaluating your suitability for employment, promotion, reclassification, transfer or retention as an employee.

By your signature below, you indicate that you authorize and consent to the release of consumer reports to the University of Memphis to be used in connection with your application for employment, promotion, reclassification, transfer or retention at the University of Memphis. If you fail or refuse to execute this document, no further consideration will be given to your application for employment, promotion, reassignment or retention as an employee.
