

Sony Playstation 3 Registration and Configuration

This tutorial will help to connect your Sony Playstation 3 to the residence hall network.

Go to Settings on the Cross Media Bar (XMB) and select System Settings.	 A screenshot of the Sony PlayStation 3 XMB (Cross Media Bar) interface. The top bar contains icons for Home, Settings, Camera, Music, Video, and Game. The 'Settings' icon is selected, and the 'System Settings' menu is displayed. The menu options are: Date and Time Settings, Accessory Settings, Display Settings, Sound Settings, and Security Settings. The background features a blue wavy light effect.
Scroll down and select System Information.	 A screenshot of the Sony PlayStation 3 XMB interface showing the 'System Settings' menu. The menu options are: Backup Utility, Restore Default Settings, Restore PS3™ System, and Install Other OS. The 'System Information' icon is selected, and the 'System Information' menu is displayed. The menu options are: About PLAYSTATION®3 (PS3™). The background features a blue wavy light effect.

Your MAC Address will be the first item listed.

A screenshot of a PS3 system information screen. The background is dark with horizontal blue light streaks. The text is white and centered. It lists the MAC Address, System Software Version 1.70, IP Address 10.0.1.199, and Free Space 43 GB / 55 GB.

MAC Address
System Software	Version 1.70
IP Address	10.0.1.199
Free Space	43 GB / 55 GB

- Once you have the MAC address, you may register your PS3.

If you have any difficulties with this tutorial, please feel free to e-mail us or call the ResNet Service Center at (901) 678-4042.