ARTICLE I - NAME, PURPOSE, AND STRUCTURE

SECTION I

The name of the organization shall be the Student Government Association (SGA) of The University of Memphis.

SECTION II

The purposes of this organization are:

- A) To encourage students to realize the full potential of the University experience,
- B) To develop loyalty and enthusiasm for the University of Memphis,
- C) To supplement academic goals through the development of appropriate co-curricular programs,
- D) To aid in the social adjustment and maturation of students,
- E) To provide leadership training in an environment which permits the expression and examination of a wide range of ideas,
- F) To directly reflect student needs and interests in the promotion of campus activities, and
- G) To work in conjunction with the administrative officers in all matters affecting the welfare of the student body.

SECTION III

The officers of the Student Government Association of the University of Memphis shall be organized into (3) branches: The Executive, the Legislative, and the Judicial. The Executive branch shall be headed by a President and a Vice President. The Legislative branch shall be headed by a Speaker of the Senate. The Judicial branch shall be headed by a Chief Justice.

SECTION IV

If the office of the President shall become vacant, it shall be filled by the Vice President. If the office of the Vice President should become vacant, the President will appoint a member of the Student Government to the office who is at least a second-year student, with the approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the Senate quorum. In the event the offices of the President and Vice President are vacant simultaneously, for any reason, the Speaker of the Senate shall immediately succeed to the office of President and appoint a Vice President.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERSHIP

SECTION I

Membership in this organization shall be comprised of students registered at the University of Memphis, including undergraduate, graduate, and professional students, both full time and part-time.

SECTION II

All members of this organization shall be subject to a review of their conduct by the Office of Student Conduct and the Court to determine membership eligibility.

- A) If a candidate is currently not in good conduct standing, they shall be deemed ineligible for membership.

- B) If a current member is placed on conduct probation, they must appear before the Court to determine whether they are eligible for office.

ARTICLE III - EXECUTIVE BRANCH

SECTION I

All executive powers granted herein shall be vested in a President of the Student Government Association. The President shall be assisted by a Vice President, a Cabinet, and such Staff Personnel as they shall appoint.

SECTION II

The President shall have the following duties:

- A) To faithfully execute the laws of this Constitution, of the Senate, and all other laws of the Student Government Association,
- B) To call and preside over meetings of the Executive Council,
- C) To submit to the Senate for approval the proposed budget for the year,
- D) To appoint students to the University-wide Standing Committees,
- E) To appoint students to Cabinet and to call Cabinet meetings at their discretion,
- F) To present to the Senate for confirmation all vacancies filled by the Court selection committees for approval by two-thirds (2/3) of the Senate membership present,
- G) To require, when requested, a written opinion by the Attorney General of any provision of the Constitution or the laws of the Student Government Association,

SECTION III

The President shall have the following privileges:

- A) To call special sessions of the Senate,
- B) To veto any acts of the Senate. If the President does not veto any act of the Senate within ten (10) working days after passage, such act becomes law without the President's signature. The President shall not have the power to veto articles of impeachment,
- C) To appoint or remove such other Staff Personnel and members of their Cabinet as they may deem to be in the best interest of the Student Body,
- D) To serve on the Chief Justice Selection Committee.

SECTION IV

The Vice President shall have the following duties:

- A) To execute the duties and powers of the President in his absence,
- B) To serve as President of the Senate and perform the following duties:
 - 1. To preside over the first senate meeting of the new general assembly until a Speaker of the Senate is elected,
 - 2. To appoint in conjunction with the Speaker of the Senate a Parliamentarian, Clerk, and any other such functionaries of the Senate as they may decide,

3. To vote only if a tie occurs,
4. To vote to make quorum if quorum is not met,
5. To deliver the officer report on behalf of the Executive Branch,
6. To perform such duties as the President may assign him/her, and
7. To serve on the Chief Justice Selection Committee.

SECTION V

The Executive Council of the Student Government Association shall be comprised of the President, the Vice President, the Speaker of the Senate, and the Chief Justice of the Court. This Council shall be chaired by the President of the Student Government Association.

SECTION VI

The President Cabinet shall be comprised of the following offices:

- A) The Department of Finance,
- B) The Department of Government Relations,
- C) The Department of Student Services, and
- D) The Office of the Attorney General.
 - a. Attorney General may appoint a "Special Counsel" to oversee an investigation if they believe their impartiality is compromised.

The duties of these departments and offices shall be outlined within the Executive Branch bylaws.

ARTICLE IV – LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

SECTION I

All legislative powers granted herein shall be vested in a Senate.

SECTION II

The term "Senate membership" shall be defined as the total number of Senators in office at the time.

A majority of the membership of the Senate shall constitute a quorum to do business. A "majority" shall be defined as half of the total number of Senators, plus one additional Senator. - D) Each Justice of the Court shall carry a course load of at least six (6) semester hours at The University of Memphis during their term of office.

ARTICLE VII – IMPEACHMENT

SECTION I

Impeachment shall be defined as the process through which the Senate files charges for violations of the provisions of this Constitution. A simple majority vote of the entire Senate shall be adequate to initiate the impeachment process. After a party has been impeached, their trial shall be heard at the next formal Senate meeting. If two-thirds (2/3) affirmation is not met, the impeached party is innocent and remains in the office they held. No party described in this article shall be subject to double jeopardy.

- A) In the event of the Speaker of the Senate being impeached, the Speaker shall be treated as absent.

SECTION III

All officers of the Student Government Association, excluding the President's Cabinet and Staff are subject to impeachment and trial by the Senate. All members that are impeached, tried and convicted shall be barred from participation in the Student Government Association indefinitely.

ARTICLE VIII – AMENDMENTS

SECTION I

The Constitutional Review Committee may meet to review the Constitution and make recommendations to the Senate on possible revisions. The Constitutional Review Committee shall consist of the following members:

- A) President and one (1) appointee,
- B) Speaker of the Senate and one (1) appointee,
- C) Chief Justice and one (1) appointee, and
- D) Attorney General who shall serve as chairperson and vote only during a tie.

SECTION II

Two-thirds (2/3) vote in the Senate shall be sufficient to adopt amendments to this Constitution. Once amendments have been adopted, a referendum on the adopted amendments will occur at the next election requiring a simple majority of voters to pass.

SECTION III

Bylaws, while permitted to aid the administration of each branch, may neither contradict legislation passed by the Senate nor serve as official amendments to this Constitution.

ARTICLE IX – STUDENT TRUSTEE SELECTION PROCESS
