

Call for Student Poster Submissions: 12th Social Work Symposium

April 12, 2024
University of Memphis
Memphis, Tennessee

Social Work: Getting Back to Our Roots and Embracing the Community

The School of Social Work at the University of Memphis invites students at the baccalaureate or masters levels in social work and related disciplines to submit abstracts for poster presentations at the symposium. Students in social work and related fields at all levels are strongly encouraged to submit abstracts.

Submission Guidelines:

Students may submit abstracts in teams or individually. Abstracts must include the name of the faculty advisor and a list of all student presenters with university affiliation and email address. Abstracts must contain no more than 50 words. Student posters will be judged at the symposium and 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places will be awarded. Please submit your abstract here:
