2027 Field Education Awards

The School of Social Work is now accepting nominations for the 2027 Field Student of the Year and 2027 Field Instructor of the Year award. Field Education is the social work profession's signature pedagogy. Each year, the School of Social Work recognizes one student from the Bachelor of Arts in Social Work (BASW) program and one student from the Master of Social Work (MSW) program, as well as one BASW Field Instructor and one MSW Field Instructor for the Field Education Awards.

The winners selected from the pool of nominations will receive a monetary award and will be recognized at the 15th annual Social Work Symposium. Student award recipients will also be recognized at the University Honors Assembly.

Eligibility for Student Nominees

Eligible student nominees should be enrolled in their final academic year or semester of field placement internship in either the BASW or MSW program at the University of Memphis between Summer 2026, Fall 2026, and/or Spring 2027. Both part-time and full-time students are eligible. One nominee from each program level (1 BASW student and 1 MSW student) will be selected as a winner based on their nomination form(s). Field Student nominees should demonstrate superior leadership, critical thinking, oral and written communication, professionalism, and drive to go above/beyond expectations while at their respective internship placement.

Students can only be nominated by their field instructor (agency supervisor) and/or supporting staff members from their field placement internship agency from the current academic year. Additional (optional) letters of support for the nomination can be uploaded to the nomination form.

Eligibility for Field Instructor Nominees

Eligible field instructors must be supervising at least one BASW or MSW field placement student at the respective internship agencies between Summer 2026, Fall 2026, and/or Spring 2027. One nominee from each program level (1 BASW Field Instructor and 1 MSW Field Instructor) will be selected as a winner based on their nomination form(s). Field Instructor nominees should demonstrate excellence in mentorship of social work field education student interns, advocacy for building students' professional growth, and fostering a positive learning environment to promote student success. Field Instructors can only be nominated by their social work student intern(s) from the current academic year.

Nomination Deadline

The nomination process is described below. The deadline for submission is 4:30 PM Central Time on March 1, 2027. Winners will be notified no later than March 15, 2027. Winners must register for and be present at the Social Work Symposium (date TBD for Spring 2027). Questions or supporting documents should be directed to Prof. Maggie Landry Maggie.L@memphis.edu
