

I carry a lot on my plate, but I hold my head up high. I'm a good mom.

Who could have ever imagined that being diagnosed with HIV would turn my life around for the better?

I am here still living and growing in my life!

