

You can start over at any time.

I'm going to the Excel school to get my high school diploma. We have a cap and gown, we have a ring, we have everything. I'm going to walk the stage and get that diploma!

I can live a successful life clean and sober. I am enjoying life, no longer just existing in life.

My dream is to open a veteran care home and have a thrift store where I can sell and give away clothes.
